AGED MAN DIES

Last evening, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows of La Grande, the remains of Marshall Mitchell was laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mitchell, who was over three quarters of a century old, was severely injured last Saturday, death resulting yesterday.

He had been an employee on the Walter Pierce ranch near La Grande and last Saturday while riding a horse, was thrown, first on the pommel, causing internal injuries, and later thrown to the ground breaking a limb. Due to his advanced age, the injuries proved fatal. He has a family in the east.

PASSENGER DITCHED

This morning about seven thirty, passenger train number one was derailed at the foot of the grade a mile east of Union. Fortunately the passenger was not moving very rapidly. While nearing the level, a flange on one wheel of the trucks under the tender broke, derailing the engine. The engine bumped the bumps for about a hundred feet before it could be stopped. No other cars left the rails and the passengers in the rear cars failed to notice anything other than that the train was slowing up. It took over three hours for an engine sent from the round house here to pull the disabled engine to Union and return to the passenger. Number six was held at Hot Lake until number one passed.

KILLED BROWN BEAR

Chas. Williams, aged fifteen years, and living in Cove, is the proud possessor of a bear's hide today. For over a week young Williams had been adopting the crafts of a skilled huntsman to get a shot at Mr. Bruin who has been making himself obnoxious in and about the vicinity of Cove for nearly a week. Yesterday on the Houx place, Mr. Bruin and Mr. Williams met, to the utter discomfiture of the former, for a large brown bear skin now adorns the home of the young huntsman.
