STANIELS & JARMAN

Paper Hangers and Decorators

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Miss Elizabeth Magie, aged 24 years of Washington and one of the government's $10 a week stenographers who admits that she is beautiful and talented, has made the most amazing offer to the New York World ever published in a newspaper. Miss Magie is modest enough to confess that in temperament she slightly resembles Mary MacLane, the "poetess of Butte" and announces that she will sell herself to the highest bidder.

She offers to become a slave and will sell her talents to any one who considers them of sufficient value to purchase. She yearns to wear silks and diamonds and will become the property of the person who can provide them in the greatest profusion. She says "typewriting is hell," and she longs for an easier and more luxurious life. Cooking is not for her but she claims she can make any one happy. She says she obeys God's laws although she does not attend church. Silk lingerie is a dream of delight to her while she is compelled to wear garments of ten cent gauze. She concludes as follows:

"And now, gentlemen, we have the auction block to be sold to the highest bidder: a woman, look at her. Is she not beautiful? More, she's talented, and last of all she is willing to be sold. Step up and make your bids."

Miss Maggie declares she is weary of the thralldom of a $10 a week salary as a stenographer and longs for diamonds and necklaces, big red automobiles and coasting gowns.

"I mean just what I have written. I shall sell myself to the highest bidder. But I am to be judge of the highest bid. For instance, some one might allow me an annual amount in exchange for whatever my intellect and genius may earn for him. I should consider that a higher bid than one which demanded of me something more personal."

SALOON AT WALLOWA BRIDGE

At the last session of the county court Chas. Melquist was granted a license to sell wines and liquors in less quantities than one gallon at the Wallowa bridge, or new town, Mimam, for the period of one year. Mr. Melquist was the third party to make an effort to get a license and the only one who succeeded. Twice during the summer other parties made an attempt to secure the privilege, but each time the petitions were met with remonstrances and denied. There was no remonstrance presented the last time however, and Mr. Melquist was successful. It is said that a house that can sell in less quantities than one gallon will reap a harvest at that point. There has been three gallon houses located there for some time and all doing a rushing business.—Elgin Recorder.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved:—That a seven foot sidewalk, according to specifications provided by ordinance, be constructed along the North side of Greenwood Street from its intersection with Monroe Avenue to its intersection with R Street, and along R Street, East along lots numbered 22, 21, 20, 19 and 18, in Block 148, of Champ-lains Addition to La Grande. The Recorder is hereby directed to give the necessary notice to all property owners abutting said proposed improvement that unless said side-walks are constructed within ten days from and after the date of such notice the same will be built by the City, and the expense and costs of the same made a lien against such abutting property.

I. R. SNOOK, Recorder
Dated at La Grande, Oregon, this 6th day of October 1906.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SIDE-WALK CONSTRUCTION

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the council of the city of La Grande, Oregon, held on Oct. 3, 1906, a resolution was passed providing for a 7 foot sidewalk along and upon the east side of Jackson avenue from its intersection with North 4th street to its intersection with North Depot street, that unless said side walk improvement is defeated by a remonstrance signed by at least two thirds of the abutting property owners and filed with the city Recorder within 10 days of this notice, the said side-walk will be ordered constructed by the council of said city.

I. R. SNOOK, Recorder.
Dated this 6th day of Oct., 1906.

It is enough that a woman should be well and strong to be charming and beautiful, in order to be this she must take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, one of the greatest beautifiers known. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.
