Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

A Safe Medicine for Children.

In buying a cough medicine for children, never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when the remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult.

At The Theatre

One of the season's remarkable record breakers both from a viewpoint of attendance and general satisfaction is claimed to be "A Mad Love" which is announced for Monday Oct. 15 with Miss Maretta Smart, one of our youngest stars of emotional characters recently discovered by Manager Edward R. Slater, and a splendid company of recognized players. "A Mad Love" is a modern version of Miss M. E. Braddon's "Lady Audley's Secret" and has proved one of the most imposing and permanent triumphs in the history of literary endeavor. Being as it is a play that deals with humankind and has for its characters those seen in the daily life it pleases all classes.

FAMOUS HI HENRY MINSTRELS

Will Be in La Grande in Full Force Next Saturday Oct. 20, Matinee and Night.

J. C. Knapp, advance agent for the best minstrel combination west of the Mississippi river, is in town and announces the coming of the famous Hi Henry aggregation to this place Oct. 20, Matinee and Night.

Of the troupe that will be at Steward's Opera House the Spokane Chronicle says:

When the curtain rose upon the first part of Hi Henry's minstrels at the Spokane theatre last night it displayed one of the handsomest stage settings ever seen with a minstrel show in this city. It was a representation of the interior of Aladdin's palace, and when lighted up with hundreds of colored lights presented a beautiful picture of stagecraft. The finale was a picture of Dixie land, showing floating clouds, rising moon, rippling waters and twinkling stars and was a wonderful realistic scene.

While the Spokesman-Review says: Hi Henry's minstrels, who opened an engagement of two nights and a matinee last evening, gave a clean bright musical and humorous entertainment one in which every feature is enjoyable. There is a large amount of the regulation minstrelsy about the performance, and some things that are slightly foreign to such a show but everything is first class. Hi Henry himself is a feature, as a cornet soloist with a full orchestra accompaniment.

The Daily News of Westminster, B. C. has to say as follows about the same performance:

The smartest show that has been seen in New Westminster this season and by far the most elegant and most original minstrel company that has ever played here, was the unanimous verdict of the record audience that attended the Hi Henry minstrels in the opera house last night.

Says the Daily Province of Vancouver: Nor did the audience have cause to regret its attendance at what was certainly the best minstrel show that has been here in several years.

On account of the tremendous business this attraction is playing to all along their route an extra Matinee will be given at special prices so the people from the surrounding country and the children may witness the greatest attraction Hi Henry has ever brought West. Matinee prices will be Children 25c, adults 50c. No reserved seats.

PARSIFAL COMING

The more one seeks for the original source of the mythical legend of the Holy Grail, which is the foundation of Richard Wagner's beautiful spectacle of "Parsifal" the more one becomes bewildered at any different explanations that present themselves. Eminent writers and scholars have presented their individual views, arriving at many different conclusions.

MARETTA SMART IN "A MAD LOVE"

CHAS. GANO, COMEDIAN WITH HI HENRY'S MINSTRELS

They all agree, however, in admitting that the legend is practically the same for, with a different direct meaning had been created in pagan lands of the earliest antiquity, and later had been adopted by the early Christian church in its mystic plays and so handed down in the present different forms. Certain it is, however, that Wagner must have made a close study of the vast material existing upon the subject, and in the legend of "Parsifal" gives us an idea of a composite nature that is so exquisitely told and contains such grand moral lessons, that it will live and shine wherever Christianity reigns and as long as Christianity endures.

LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 5 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars are permitted to remain in this school who do not study.
