NEWS ITEMS SPECIAL TO OBSERVER

(Observer Special)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon, October 18, 1906.

There are now over three hundred students enrolled in the university. It is probable that before Christmas this number will be increased to three hundred and fifty.

The Mandolin club of the university has effected temporary organization and will soon begin work. It will, as usual, accompany the Glee club on its tour of Eastern Oregon. This trip will probably be made during the Christmas holidays.

The Freshman class has elected its officers. Among them are Glen Scott and Edith Johnson of Pendleton, who were elected president and vice-president, respectively.

Orai A. Wilson, the newly elected president of the Sophomore class, comes from Baker City.

Ben Grout, of La Grande, is one of the most prominent candidates for a position on the football team. At present he is holding down the position as center on the second team.

The Oregon weekly states that as soon as football work is over, trainer Hayward will get Richardson and some other big men at work putting the shot and hammer.

A mass meeting of the student body was held this week. Addresses were made on class work, debating, oratory, football, baseball and basketball. Much enthusiasm was developed. In all her enterprises this year, U. of O. will have a united and sympathetic student body.

The rooters of the university have organized and every evening during football practice there may be heard on Kincaid field and for blocks around, the inspiring sound of college yells and the melodious strains of "Boula Hoola."

It is really one of the most wonderful tonics for developing the figure and soothing the nerves ever offered to the American people. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Newlin Drug Co.

FOR SALE—Practically new double keyboard typewriter with fine case $45. Phone red 782.

WANTED—Traveler for established House. $12 per week. Expenses advanced. References. Address, with stamp, Jos. A. Alexander, La Grande, Ore.

A FRUIT CANNERY

It is simply a question of time until our fruit interests will demand and secure a large cannery. The few canneries now in operation in the state have no trouble what ever in disposing of their product. Canneries furnish considerable employment and make a market for fruit that cannot be shipped. This is certainly a virgin field for a combination of capital and experience in this line of industry.

MILCH COWS FOR SALE

J. M. Clark, three quarters of a mile south of the Masonic cemetery has milch cows for sale. Phone Black 181. Lock Box No. 6, La Grande, Ore.

JEWELRY

Siegrist & Co., Jewelers, have placed on sale at their store 400 fine watches at wholesale prices. Mr. Herman Siegrist while in San Francisco secured about 700 Waltham Elgin watches at a bargain part of which were sent to this city and placed on sale.

Watch their window for bargains.

FOR SALE—Modern 5 room house. Apply at O. F. Coolidge's paint store.

Geo. C. Aldrich of Chicago and James McAlpine of Milwaukee Wisconsin, are in the city today. They are interested in the prospects of Grande Ronde's mines, and the Indiana mines on Eagle creek. Both gentlemen have samples of apples picked near La Grande stored in their trunks and will keep them there until their wives can share the enjoyment of eating the juicy and palatable fruit.

IF YOU HAVE A TASTE FOR THE BEST
