HAVE YOU SEEN HIM?

Considerable uneasiness is felt for the safety of a sheep herder who is known as "Old man McClelan," who for the past number of years has been herding a band of sheep in the vicinity of Starkey for Antone Vey. Mr. Charles Tall, who returned from the Autelia mines yesterday states that the old gentleman has not been seen for the past ten days and as he was to meet some other herders some time last week and failed to do so, and as nothing can be learned regarding his whereabouts, it is feared that he has met with some accident. McClelan is a rather old man and wears a long beard which is very gray. Any information regarding him will be gladly received at this office.

ORDER OF THE SMILING FACE

We've formed a new society—The Order of the Smiling Face. An honored member you may be. For every one may have a place. The rules say you must never let the corners of your mouth drop down. For by this method you may get the habit of a sulky frown. If playmates tease you, let your eyes be a brave and merry twinkle show. For if the angry tears arise they're very apt to overflow. If you must practice for an hour, and if it seems a long, long while, Remember not to pout and glower. But wear a bright and cheerful smile. The rules are simple, as you see. Make up your mind to join to-day. Put on a smile—and you will be an active member right away.

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.

MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments; No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire.
