MARRIED

At the home of the bride's parents in Baker City, yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, Cecil L. Brown of this city and Miss Georgia Harmon, were united in marriage, Rev. O. H. King of La Grande officiating with the ring ceremony.

The home of George B. Harmon was profusely decorated with pink and white carnations except the bower under which the ceremony was enacted. This was, in harmony with the brides' dress, entirely green. The dining room too, was fragrant with carnations. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of pure green. The groom was dressed in black.

After the ceremony the forty-five guests present were treated to a six-course post-nuptial lunch. During the evening an informal reception was given at the home and which was largely attended by the scores of friends of the bride and groom.

The bride is the daughter of George B. Harmon and until two months ago, was a resident of La Grande, having been born and grown to womanhood in this city. During the summer her family moved to Baker City where Mr. Harmon is employed in the Plymouth Clothing store.

The groom for the past nineteen months has been a trusted employee in the N. K. West store, working in the capacity of window trimmer and card writer. To this city, he came from Portland, hailing originally from Washington, D. C. As a young man, he has sterling qualities that will assist him in making an honorable success in life.

The bride and groom arrived in the city last evening and will be at home in this city after November 1.

MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire.
