AMUSEMENT

TOMORROW NIGHT

A Great Show! This is the sentiment expressed regarding the Hi. Henry Big City Minstrel Show which will appear at Steward's opera house on Saturday, October 20. The company is credited with being a remarkably strong one. It seems walking over the course without even a running mate. The management is presenting a host of new features. The company travels in its own special train of palace cars, said to be the finest in the world. Two carloads of special scenery are carried and everything is gilt edged and refined. Don't miss this show. Seats can now be had at VanBuren's.

PARSIFAL—COME EARLY

No grander spectacle, no more sublime subject, no greater Christian lesson or more intense dramatic action, and no more beautiful or interesting story was ever embodied in a play in any period of the world's history than is witnessed in the magnificent world known mystic drama, "Parsifal." The story of "Parsifal," in somewhat varied forms, is more or less familiar to English readers by their acquaintance with Tennyson's, "Knights of the Round Table," or Walter Map's Welch legend of the same subject. German scholars and readers have gained their principal knowledge of the story from the pen of their famous poet, Wolfram von Esenbach, who wrote his lengthy but wonderful poem before Wagner's time. French readers are similarly acquainted with the sacred theme through the medium of the grand work of Chetrein de Troyes. Other writers, poets and philosophers, of all climes and ages, have gloried in showing their genius in prose and poetry through the medium of this absorbing legendary story. A production of this soul stirring drama will be given at Steward's opera house Thursday, Oct. 25. It is one of the rules of the performance—and the management gives every assurance that the rule will be strictly enforced—that every one must be seated before the house is darkened, which means before the rise of the first curtain. Late comers will not be shown to their seats during the action of the play.

NOTED PRIEST DIES

Rev. Lather Micheal Flohr who died in Walla Walla this week was one of the best known priests in the Inland section owing to the fact that he has been in continuous service in Walla Walla for nearly a quarter of a century as priest of St. Patrick's church and during that time was no small factor in shaping the moral and intellectual condition of all who came in contact with him.

NO ACT FALLS FRUITLESS

Scorn not the slightest word or deed.
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed
That waits its natural hour.
A whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
A look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.

No act falls fruitless; none can tell
How vast its power may be,
Nor what results infolded dwell
Within it silently.
Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be;
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy true and free.
