SURVEY ABOUT COMPLETED

City Engineer Pickler has about completed his survey from Beaver creek to this city, expecting to finish the actual field work this week if the weather does not interfere. Then commences the office work which will require a number of days before he will be able to file his report of the estimated cost of bringing the waters of Beaver creek to this city for domestic purposes. When this report is completed it is the intention of the council to submit the proposition to the voters and they will decide whether or not the city is to be bonded for a sufficient sum to bring this about.

OYSTER SUPPER

The order of Fraternal Tribunes will give an oyster social tomorrow night at their hall. Each member is expected to come and bring a friend.

THEY MUST RETURN

(Scripps News Association)
Washington, Oct. 19—The President this afternoon ordered General Greeley, who is commanding the Northern division to send a suitable force of cavalry into Wyoming to compel the Ute Indians to return to their reservation.

MURDER AT PENDLETON

Pendleton, Oct. 18—Tom Myers is dead and old man Hironimus is seriously wounded as a result of a deadly fight on North McKay this afternoon. Thus far the reports of the affair have been very meagre, but from parties living on the head of McKay it was learned that the quarrel occurred over some horses.

Hironimus is said to have accused Myers of having ridden horses belonging to the former, and in a quarrel which ensued, guns were used by both men. Myers fired twice at Hironimus while the latter fired once at Myers with a shotgun, striking him in the neck and killing him instantly.

The condition of Hironimus is serious and he is now being brought to this city for surgical aid. Immediately after hearing of the fight this afternoon Sheriff Joe Blackely, Coroner Folsom and others left for the scene.—Pendleton E. O.

AFTER MORE REBATORS-

(Scripps News Association)
New York, Oct. 19.—Frederick Pomeroy, the man arraigned for issuing rebates in the capacity of assistant general traffic agent for the Central railroad, was fined a thousand dollars on each of the six counts on which he was found guilty. In all, fines totaling $108,000 have been imposed on the New York Central by Judge Holt of the federal court, for granting rebates to the American Sugar Refining Company.

SMALL POX IN WALLA WALLA

Ignorant of the nature of the disease he was suffering with, Ira Fancher, who came to Walla Walla from Boise 10 days ago, walked the streets and mingled with the crowds a week ago Saturday, while ill with a well defined case of smallpox. Fancher is quarantined at his parents' home in College Place and County Health Office Stewart has notified City Physician Braden to keep a close watch for a possible epidemic of smallpox, resulting from Fancher mingling with the shopping crowds before he became aware that he was suffering with the disease.—Walla Walla Statesman.

FRISCO FIRE

(Scripps News Association)
San Francisco, Oct. 19—Fire destroyed an uninsured stock of pianos, valued at $75,000 in the store rooms of Kohler & Chase. The blaze is attributed to debris which has believed to have been smouldering since the site was swept by fire on April 20.

NEBRASKA FRAUDS

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 19—The federal grand jury today indicted twenty seven charged with fraudulent land entries and selling liquor to Indians. Some of the most prominent Nebraskans are said to be involved, their names are withheld. The President has ordered a vigorous prosecution.

Some say that city girls are poor, ignorant things. Some of them cannot tell a horse from a cow, but they do know that Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is one of the greatest beautifiers known. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Newlin Drug Co.
