SOCIETY

Miss Ella Goeck, who is soon to be married was tendered a "Miscellaneous Shower" Thursday evening by Mrs. A. Buckley and Miss L. Gulling at the home of Mrs. Buckley on Jefferson Avenue. The rooms were profusely decorated in Oregon grass, ivy and ferns.

The party was a surprise to Miss Goeck and as she entered the chime of tiny silver bells greeted her and a large heart suspended in the arch opened and showered the bride elect. The presents were numerous and beautiful.

During the evening Miss Etta Foley and Mrs. T. N. Murphy sang in their usual pleasing manner. Miss Mayme Reith and Dorothy Zuber rendered instrumental solos and Mr. F. O'Hara gave several readings which delighted the guests.

ENDOWMENT FOR OSTEOPATHY

Osteopathy keeps moving forward; and it is really necessary to follow the records closely in order to keep in touch with its advance. Perhaps one of its greatest strides forward was in the inauguration recently of a movement for an endowed college. The initial step was taken at the recent national convention of Osteopaths at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie, and nearly $25,000 was subscribed on the spot.

There are already, of course, a number of fine Osteopathic colleges—wonderfully advanced and wonderfully equipped when it is considered that the science is still new and that each of these schools has had to pay its way as it went along. But the idea now is to either start a new school or endow one of the established ones so that it may pursue its work unhampered by the necessity of making ends meet every year.

Then, too, several men with marked capabilities for scientific research have arisen in the Osteopathic ranks; and an endowed college will afford just the needed opportunity for them to pursue their work under proper auspices.

BASKET SOCIAL

Next Friday evening at the Woodman Hall in Island City, the football team of that city will give a basket social for the purpose of obtaining money to meet the expenses of the team. Everybody is invited to attend the social and help the boys from a financial standpoint.
