LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 5 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study. Opposite the Foley House over the candy store. Phone. 473.

STATE WOMAN'S FEDERATION

Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, national president of Woman's clubs, will be in attendance at the State Federation which meets in Portland, Oct. 30, and continues in session three days. Besides the routine business of the convention, an excellent program has been arranged including lectures and some very fine music.

The evening of Oct. 31 has been set apart for a lecture by Mrs. Decker for which the New England Conservatory club will furnish the music. The lecture will be given in one of the large city churches and the public cordially invited without admission fee.

The Federation officers, chairmen of state committees and visiting delegates will be entertained by the local clubs at one of the leading hotels.

A banquet at the hotel Portland will be given in honor of Mrs. Decker and the visiting delegates. A trolley ride to Council Crest is also one of the social features planned by the committee.

It is expected that club women throughout the state will appreciate the fact that Mrs. Decker, who is known as one of the most brilliant speakers in America, and is in almost constant demand as a lecturer, will be obliged to cross half the continent at her own expense to participate in the Oregon club convention, and that they will enthusiastically flock to meet and greet, and hear the first club woman of the land.
