MARRIED

HALLEY-SOHN—In this city at six p. m. Sunday, Oct. 21, 1906, at the Presbyterian Manse, Mr. Robert L. Halley and Natley Sohn were united in marriage by Rev. E. B. Hays.

OFF FOR WALLOWA

Circuit Judge Robert Eakin leaves in the morning to hold an adjourned term of court in Wallowa county. He does not know how long the term will last, the only case on the docket, however, is the state vs Bear who shot and killed Brick Johnson. The grand jury at the last term returned several indictments but no arrests have been made and whether or not these cases will come up remains to be seen, however, the judge thinks it quite probable that court may last longer than this week.

BARTLETT-GARDINIER CASE

In speaking of the probable trial of E. W. Bartlett and S. A. Gardinier, the judge stated that he had not decided to hear the trial at this term of court, but would continue it until the February term. He said the attorneys for the defendants were very solicitous for an immediate trial, but owing to the fact that he had decided to empanel a new jury in case he did try the case, which would make it quite expensive, for this reason he thought that probably he might continue the case until next term.
