AMUSEMENT

WHAT IS A PIXIE?

No question has so frequently been asked in La Grande during the last week as "What is a Pixie? Where do Pixies live?
What do Pixies eat?" Families have divided on the question, and we think it is about time to enlighten the public.

Long, long ago there dwelt in the caves under the mountains of Norway, Sweden, Scotland and Germany, a strange race of little men not much taller than a man's thumb, with very fat bodies, big goggle eyes, fat moon faces and wide grinning mouths. They were little smiths and worked all day at their anvils lighting their caves with the wings of fireflies.

At night while weary mortals slept they flocked all over the world on missions of good or mischief to mankind.

They carried the horses and weeded the garden for the sick farmer, they kneaded his good wife's dough, or gamboled on the green to the music of the crickets, returning to their caves at the first peep of dawn. These were the Pixies and brownies, and the fairy books are full of their wonderful adventures.

Another race of little men with humped backs and long gray beards, lived in Norse-land. They were vicious little elves, who tormented human beings. They delighted in kidnapping little children and taking them to their caves where they boiled them in their cauldrons. These bad elves were the goblins, immortalized by Eugene Field.

Until twelve years ago we heard of these little men only thru the pages of fairy books. To W. A. Milne of Chicago is due the credit of taking them from the printed page and giving them real flesh and blood in his fairy extravaganza
"The Pixies."

For twelve years thousands have laughed at their strange antics in the larger cities of every state in the Union.

The citizens of La Grande will have an opportunity of seeing these sprites and nearly two hundred fairies, butterflies, flower girls, pages, Amazon guards and Japanese maidens at Stewarts opera house on Thursday and Saturday nights of this week, and at a special matinee on Saturday afternoon.

It is given for the benefit of the public school, and is under the direction of the author. Sale of seats opens Wednesday morning at Van Buren's. Two packed houses are assured and all who desire seats should loose no time in making their reservations.

BEACH & BOWERS' MINSTRELS

A large audience greeted the old time favorites. Beach & Bowers' minstrels at the Hefferlin last night. Minstrels shows seem to have found what Ponce de Leon failed to find—the spring of eternal youth.
Livingston people seem to take as much pleasure in the old time minstrel humorist the musical novelties, the contortionists, etc., as their grandfathers took years ago.

The Beach & Bowers show has a splendid band and some especially clever soloists. The musical part of the show in well up to standard. John Higgins is an especially funny end man. Roswell J.
Wright is surely phenomenal as a male soprano. Harry Perrill basso has the greatest range of voice ever shown in Livingston. He is a basso, a baritone and a tenor, all in one. All in the show was as good a one as is now traveling in minstrelsy and is deserving of a good patronage.—Livingston (Montana) Post At Stewarts Opera house Nov. 2.

TAKE NOTICE

Those who have milk and cream bottles belonging to the Blue Mountain Creamery Co. will please return the same promptly as our supply is running very low and we will not be able to accommodate you with the use of bottles unless the same is returned promptly. Remember bottles cost money, so do not expect the creamery to give you a 15 cent bottle with every quart of milk or cream.

STARVING TO DEATH

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Newlin
