SOCIETY

Sarah and Marion Smith and Runa Bacon will entertain about twenty-five of their little friends at a Halloween party at the C. T. Bacon residence tomorrow.

Mrs. Wm. Erickson will entertain a party of young people at her home Thursday at a masquerade card party. On Saturday evening she entertains a party of lady and gentlemen friends at Five Hundred.

On account of the death of Miss Henry Mesdames E. E. Kormig and J. B. Stoddard and Miss Stoddard have postponed their party which was announced for tomorrow evening.

The Neighborhood Club met this afternoon in the club rooms. The study of English History was especially interesting today as it dealt with the origin of the Holy grail and founding of Knighthood. The story of Parsifal was yet fresh on the minds of the hearers and it was with interest that the connection of that story with today's study, was discussed. The many other interesting historical events during the reign of the Plantagenets were briefly studied.

DIED

HENRY—In this city, Tuesday, Oct. 30, 1906, Miss Edna R. Henry, aged 32 years, 1 month, 2 days.

The funeral will probably take place Thursday afternoon. The interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Bessie, as she was universally known, was born in South Bend, Indiana, September 28, 1874, the only child of County Judge and Mrs. J. C. Henry, respected and honored pioneers of this city and county.

She was but three years of age when she accompanied her mother to this city to join Mr. Henry, who preceded them. From girlhood she was always a favorite and took an active part in the social life of the city up to three years ago, when that dreaded disease, consumption, laid hold upon her, and despite everything that wealth and science could do, death finally relieved her of her suffering at 1:40 this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry have the sympathy of all in this hour of their grief.

Mrs. Charles Roup received a telegram this morning stating her husband, who has been in Salem for the past several months had died there last evening. The body will not be brought to this city for burial, as the funeral will take place in Salem tomorrow afternoon. The deceased leaves a wife and five children. He had been in ill health for the past several years, and was in Salem for treatment.

FINED $50 EACH

Officers Rayburn and McLachlen early this morning arrested Minnie Lewis and her lover G. J. Gleason on the charge of keeping a bawdy house and being an inmate of a bawdy house. The Officers for several months have been trying to rid the city of this class of men who live off the earnings of these unfortunate women. When the defendants appeared before Recorder I. R. Snook, they entered a plea of guilty and he gave them the full limit, $50 each. The officers notified them that if they continued living together they would file a state case against them next time.

Ed Blackburn is transacting business in the city from Baker City.

READY FOR BUSINESS

Messrs. Noys and Hall now have the Armory Hall floor in first class condition and this evening promptly at seven thirty the doors will open and those who desire to partake of the pleasure of roller skating, will find ample opportunity for pleasure. The skates are the best to be had and everything has been arranged for a successful opening. The band will give a concert in front of Jay Van Buran's and from their will go to the Armory Hall where they will furnish music during the evening. On account of an error on the part of the shippers the ladies skates did not arrive, but they are now on the road and will be here in a short time.
