MRS. VEST IMSANE

Mrs. Cora Vest was adjudged insane this morning by County Judge Henry and will be committed to the asylum as soon as possible. While she is not ferocious, she has lost all her faculties. During the approach of insanity she was frequently seen at the depot and invariably her little five-year-old daughter was the object of much comment because of the extreme beauty the little tot possesses. The maniac imagines that someone is going to take the little child from her. When Mrs. Vest is incarcerated the little girl will be cared for by relatives of the demented lady.

TO TAKE UP CHARGE

F. M. Jasper who was granted an exhorter's license last week by the presiding elder of the M. E. Church will leave Monday for Long Valley to accept a regular charge. Mr. Jasper is a man of ability and will doubtless make a success of his new calling.

PIXIES DRAW A BIG HOUSE

There is no question but that the public school library fund will be greatly increased. Last night the Pixies given by the school children under the direction of W. A. Milne, packed the opera house for two hours entertainment that was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Think of it, over two hundred of our own girls and boys prettily dressed, many in costumes, on the stage at once. In choruses, solos, and drills, the execution of which was simply amazing when it is considered the short duration since its conception.

Favorable comment is heard by all who attended and as there will be two more performances, tomorrow evening and the matinee tomorrow afternoon, there will be very few in the city who will not attend.

If last night's demonstration is any criterion those desiring good seats will apply early. Each and every one did credit to the parts assigned and a worthy of special mention.

BISHOP SCADDING COMING HERE

Bishop Scadding, the newly elected head of the Oregon Episcopal church, will be in La Grande on Nov. 12. Rev. Upton H. Gibbs, rector of St. Peter's church, stated this morning that the bishop will deliver one address in La Grande and also stated that he is planning for an informal reception at which friends of the church and those who desire, can personally meet the new bishop.

Bishop Scadding is making a tour of Eastern Oregon and will come here from Pendleton, and continue his trip to Baker City. He is a man of exceptional abilities and this opportunity to hear him should not be neglected by anyone. Mrs. Scadding will accompany him.

BAZAR AND DINNER

The Ladies Guild of St. Peter's church will give their annual dinner and bazar on or about Nov. 24. Full particulars will be published later.
