AMUSEMENT

Beach and Bowers minstrels played satisfactorily to a small audience last evening in the Stewart Opera house. The spectators could have been crowded into one section, but even with no incentive to do their best, the singers and specialty men were good. The grand opening captured the audience and from then on there was generally something doing of real interest all the time. The show certainly deserved a good house.

"The Convict's Daughter" the successful and popular comedy drama, comes to the Stewart's Opera House. Monday, Nov. 5.

It is interesting and intense throughout. From the rise of the curtain the expectation and suspense of the audience is kept at a high pitch by a constant succession of thrilling situations which are worked out very cleverly. The sensational escape of the convict from the prison wall to the swiftly running freight train is without question the acme of stage mechanism. The play is entirely free from situations which cannot be reconciled to human consistency, and in comparison it ranks far above plays of a like nature. A liberal amount of comedy is interspersed to keep up interest. Strong situations and thrilling climaxes, together with startling mechanical and electrical effects, help to make a perfect production. The secret of popularity and financial strength of the play is its intrinsic worth as an amusement enterprise. The piece has real merit in it and with the exceptionally strong cast especially engaged to interpret the same, should, and undoubtedly will, pack the house at every performance.

"PECK'S BAD BOY"

The Richert Mine of Natural Farce Comedy.

It is not only an inspiration of humorous genius which impelled ex-Governor Geo. W. Peck to write the "Bad Boy" biography but in that triumph of laughable literature he furnished the richest mine of farce comedy for the playwright to draw from. Twenty years ago a wide awake manager appreciating this fact, secured the exclusive rights to dramatize and produce "Peck's Bad Boy" which is the screamer with important additions, to be presented at Stewart's Opera House on Thursday, Nov. 8.

This play is not only a mirthful masterpiece whose success has been at once extraordinary and perennial, but the only genuine one of its kind; its many imitators being comparatively undeserving of consideration. Moreover the human nature with which it so brightly and mirthfully overflows, appeals irresistibly to the most emphatic appreciation and the risibles of people of every condition and age so much so that the shrill laughter of Young America is mingled with the deep guffaws of Uncle Sam's gray-haired sons.
