TOOK HER TO SALEM

The guard from the asylum arrived this morning and this afternoon the guard assisted by Sheriff Childers left for Salem with Mrs. Vest who was adjudged insane yesterday morning.

Mrs. Vest was the cause of much disturbance last night when about midnight she began a series of terrific screams, waking all the sleepers in the Foley House, where she was being kept until the guard arrived. Mr. Childers had to remove her to the jail and during her midnight walk from the hotel to the jail she kept up a continual scream. As the jail contains no padded cell it was the best not to take her there at first, but her sudden outburst caused the transfer, regardless of the steel calls. She is more quiet today.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

County Clerk Gilham this morning issued a license to marry to George Henry Boughton and Miss Bess McGivren both of Union.

BIGGEST TRUST

The country newspapers profess antagonism to the trusts, when they are the biggest trusts in the country, says the Morning Astorian. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing and if it busts for trusting gets cussed for busting. So there you are.

LOST—If the person who took the lady's wheel from the corner of Second and Jefferson will return same, no questions will be asked and serious trouble will be averted.

FIVE TRAIN CREWS.

Conductor H. C. Grady is now running the fifth crew on the O. R. & N. The extraordinary increase of business necessitated additional crews between Pendleton and Huntington, and Mr. Grady of this city has been assigned to run the train.

The trains, due to storms in the east have been greatly delayed the last few days, but when they do arrive they are invariably loaded to the limit and additional cars are always the rule. The enormous passenger traffic is unprecedented in the history of the O. R. & N. Co.

FINE HEREFORDS

Two yearling bulls, thoroughbred Herefords, were shipped thru this city to M. E. Dorrena and G. S. Craig of Elgin, from North Yakima today. The express charge alone amounted to more than 'Scrub' specimen of the same weight. Each animal weighs in the neighborhood nine hundred pounds.
