AMUSEMENT

"PECK'S BAD BOY" SOON DUE
Before George W. Peck was elected Governor of Wisconsin he had achieved national fame as the author of "Peck's Bad Boy," a series of sketches written with admirable fidelity to life, and under his sanction largely incorporated in the farce comedy of the same name, announced for presentation at Steward's opera house on Thursday, Nov. 8. The engagement has attained a fame and popularity almost, if not quite rivaling that of the author of its inspiration and everywhere has won a most enviable patronage in every respect.

OBITUARY

Martha J. Gilham, the deceased wife of William Jasper Stanley, was born in Anderson county Missouri, July 29, 1846. One year later the Gilham family with an ox team and crossed the plains, enduring all the hardships that such a journey implied. Arriving at Dallas, the family settled down and lived there several years. On July 29, 1860, Miss Gilham was united in marriage to Jasper Stanley.

Immediately after the wedding the couple went to the Dalles and remained there until 1884 at which time they returned to Dallas, living there two years. Umatilla county was their home from that date until 1894, when Mr. and Mrs. Stanley came into the Grande Ronde valley and have since resided here, honored and respected citizens.

About three weeks ago Mrs. Stanley was taken ill with typhoid, which caused her death Sunday morning at 7:45.

The funeral was held yesterday from the family residence with J. D. Gillilan officiating.

A husband, eight children, seven brothers and sisters survive her:

The children are: William, David and Bert of La Grande, Ralph of Wastancho Washington, Sarah Bennet of Union, Mrs. George Seigler of Imbler, Mrs. Roll Walker and Mrs. Stacy of La Grande.

Brothers and sisters who survive her are: Jessie J. Gilham, N. B. Gilham, J. A. Gilham all of Garfield Washington, D. C. Gilham of Dallas, Elmer Gilham of Salem, Mrs. Mary Miller of Dallas and Nellie Frink of Salem.

Deceased was always a kind, loving, wife, mother and sister. During her residence in Union-county she has won many friends by her upright and conscientious efforts to do right to all who came in contact with her.

The average young woman of today is busy. Beauty is only another name for health and it comes to 99 out of every 100 who take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, Tea or Tablets, 35 cents, Newlin Drug Co.
