

Avoid alum and alum phosphate baking powders. The label law requires that all the ingredients be named on the labels. Look out for the alum compounds.

NOTE.—Safety lies in buying only Royal Baking Powder, which is a pure, cream of tartar baking powder, and the best that can be made.

JOHNSON RESIGNS POSITION

T. B. Johnson has resigned his position as deputy to Sheriff F. P. Childers.

Mr. Johnson turned the books of the office over to Chester Newlin who has been appointed deputy by sheriff Childers.

Mr. Johnson's career in the sheriff's office of Union county has been a lengthy one and during that time he has conducted the business of that office in a creditable manner. Four and half years ago, he was appointed deputy under former sheriff Pennington. In this capacity he served until Mr. Pennington resigned a year and a half after his election to the second term.

After Mr. Pennington's resignation the county court appointed T. B. Johnson as sheriff to fill the unexpired term. Last spring when Mr. F. P. Childers, the present sheriff was elected, T. B. Johnson was appointed deputy. During the six months that have intervened the books in the sheriff's office have been in the hands of Mr. Johnson.

Sheriff Childers stated this morning that the books, are in first class condition in the very minutest particulars. The bookkeeping in that office requires an abundance of work and skill and all these things have been dutifully practiced by the resigned deputy.

Chester Newlin, the new deputy is an expert bookkeeper and will meet the requirements of the office capably. Mr. Newlin is a young man of exemplary habits, and possesses a thorough and practical education. There is no doubt but that the precedent established by the resigned deputy will be closely adhered to by the new deputy. Mr. Newlin has a large number of friends who will be pleased to learn of his appointment to this office of trust.

BONI SCANDAL UNABATED

(Scrpps News Association)

Paris, Nov. 8.—Countess Castellane, nee Anna Gould, has won the contention between her and Boni Castellane, and there will be no trial for divorce in the court. The court will make its decision from documentary evidence submitted. This determination was announced with a decision which will be rendered next Thursday. This sudden turn of proceedings means that the names of the women complicated with Boni will remain a secret and Boni will thus have a chance for his life. Today's proceedings took a turn to the ridiculous and all Paris is laughing, as well as gossiping, except Boni, who perhaps sees no humor in the situation. The reason that the court is so anxious for reconciliation, is that as the divorce seemed safe, creditors are trying to collect the vast millions that Boni owes.

In summoning up the arguments today M. Bonnet, Boni's attorney said, "I have a mission today of bringing Countess Castellane the assurance of an undying affection from an unhappy husband."

Attorneys for the creditors showed in the opening statements to the court today that as soon as the divorce proceedings close, they intend to hold the countess jointly responsible with count Boni. It is declared that the million francs annually allotted the count and countess by the Goid family, of New York, is not sufficient to meet the expenses of the Castellane household, hence Boni and the countess have gotten jointly in the hands of the usurers. It is declared that both signed papers upon which money was loaned.

HERO GIVEN MEDAL

(Scrpps News Association)

Washington Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt granted a medal of honor to Edward Murray the locomotive engineer of Pittsburg who leaped to the foot board of his engine and rescued Robert and Marga ret Lewis who stepped on the track while playing. A misstep would have been fatal to all three. The president accompanied the medal with a highly commendatory letter.

THE STANDARD OIL INDICTMENTS

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8.—The hearing of the states Ouster suit against the Standard, Waters-Pierce and Republic Oil companies was resumed here today. Attorney General Hadley has stated that he found on looking over the official copy of the proceedings of the former hearing that Mr. Pierce, the chairman of the Waters-Pierce company, had ordered the official stenographer to change some of the testimony he had given at that time. Commissioner Athony has ruled that Pierce could not change his testimony on the official copy of the proceedings but that he could change his testimony when he resumed his stand in the defense if he wished to do so. Today the defense is being continued.
