BOOKS BEING DISTRIBUTED

E. E. Bragg will before the week is over have mailed the school districts of this county their respective allotment of books which are to form the nucleus of a library in each school.

Many are direct from the office where the proper authorities call for them.

It is encouraging to people interested in the education of children, to know that the state has taken up the cause of supplying libraries. It is also encouraging to Mr. Bragg to note the interest the school children themselves are taking in the books sent to Union county by the new Oregon School Library Commission. From all parts of the county the teachers and students are waiting anxiously for the consignments to arrive at their final destination.

DOCTOR WINSHIP IN OREGON

County Superintendent E. E. Bragg announces that the Eastern division of Oregon's State Teachers' Association, meets at Pendleton on November 26-28 inclusive. Leading educators of the nation will be heard at this series of meetings. Dr. A. E. Winslip the noted author and lecturer of Boston will head the list of speakers. The doctor has been heard in this state before and his ability is common knowledge. There are other educators of considerable repute who will be heard. Among these are State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, Dr. Stephen B. L. Penrose of Whitman College, President P. L. Campbell of the University of Oregon, Mrs. Katherine E. Sloane the author of Sloan's Readers, and W. G. Hartranft, the noted lecturer of San Francisco.

It is very likely that every teacher in Union and La Grande districts will attend this educational meeting. There will be reduced railroad and hotel rates to accommodate those desiring to attend.

Further information can be obtained by addressing Frank K. Welles, the president of the association, or L. R. Craver, the secretary at Pendleton.
