AMUSEMENT

"DORA THORNE"

At a recent meeting of the American Manager's Association a brisk conference was held regarding the relative merits, and qualifications which go to make a play an assured and lasting success. From all sides could be heard the theme of heart interest, and the most casual

"I'M NOT FIT TO LIVE"

patron of the drama will surely agree to this. Heart interest we must have, something that goes straight home to the heart and proves its truth there. "Dora Thorne" was cited as an instance of this particular quality. "Dora Thorne" certainly does contain this self-same heart interest with all its variations, humor and pathos are combined with delightful originality. This is the Rowland & Clifford Company. SENSATIONAL STORY DEVOID OF TRUTH

The New York World of October 28 covered two pages with a sensational article, absolutely devoid of truth, concerning Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy. The publication was received in this city, says the Concord Monitor, where its falsity and absurdity were immediately manifest with indignation, and the following statement in refutation and contradiction of it were given to the press:

"I have known Mrs. Eddy for years. I have seen her in her carriage many times, and within the past season Mrs. Eddy has passed up Pleasant and down Green street daily and I know the sole occupant of the carriage has been Mrs. Eddy. I have never met Mrs. Eddy face to face at her residence at Pleasant View until today.

"Mrs Eddy received me this afternoon in company with Gen. F. S. Streater, who has been an attorney of Mrs. Eddy's for several years.

"As I have heard so much concerning the precarious condition of Mrs. Eddy's health, I feared that there might be some foundation for such reports, but the fact was entirely different. I spoke to Mrs. Eddy and I listened nearly half an hour to her conversation. She is keen of intellect and strong in memory. She is a surprising illustration of longevity; bright of eyes, emphatic expression and alertness rarely to be encountered in a person so venerable.

HAD A CLOSE CALL

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. LITTLE, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c. at Newlin Drug Co., druggists.
