All Ready For Baby,

The young mother thinks, when she has completed the baby garments that are to clothe the little form. But she is not all ready for baby's coming, unless she has done something more for the baby than merely to prepare his clothes. Many a young mother who goes through hours of pain and suffering wonders why it was not possible to prepare in some way for the baby's advent, and to avoid the agony that seemed almost unendurable. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the one medicine for women which prepares them perfectly, both for the burdens and pleasures of maternity. It prevents the morning sickness from which so many women suffer. It strengthens the whole body, so that there is no nervousness nor anxiety. It promotes a healthy appetite and causes refreshing sleep. It gives the mother strength for her trial and makes the baby's advent practically painless. Healthy mothers have healthy children, and it is the general testimony of those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood, that the children were healthier and happier than those born after months of mental misery and physical anguish on the part of the prospective mother.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely without fee or charge. As chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. R. V. Pierce, assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has in the past thirty years and over treated and cured more than half a million sick and suffering women. The testimonials of these cured women are on record. A large number of them were cured when doctors had pronounced a cure impossible and after enduring years of useless suffering.

Let no sick women hesitate to take advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer, but write at once and so secure the professional counsel of a specialist in the diseases of women, entirely free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Hoped for Death.

"For the sake of poor suffering women I feel it my duty to inform you of the great benefit your medicine has given me," writes Mrs. [illegible] [illegible] "I was in a most miserable condition when I wrote to you. I had [illegible] [illegible] walk and suffered such dreadful misery I [illegible] to be relieved by death. You wrote to me to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and I have taken three bottles of it, and two of your [illegible]. I am entirely well and feel like a new woman. I feel thankful to God and to Dr. Pierce for the blessings I now enjoy. I [illegible] two months old and am getting along as well in my life. I can't praise your [illegible] enough."

Very Thankful.

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. [illegible] of [illegible] "During the first four months when I looked forward to becoming a mother I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each and when I had taken them a few days I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three-parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble. (I could not do any thing before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine and I tell all who tell me they are sick to get these medicines or write to Dr. Pierce."

AN INCIDENT ALONG LIFE'S PATHWAY

Not long ago there died in a Walla Walla cell, a poor, ragged, bloated, unkempt wretch without a friend in the broad world to shed a tear of sympathy. No one cared for him, and no one mourned him. "Unwept, unhonored and unsung," his bones were rattled over the stones to the potter's field.

Fifteen years ago, this man bright-eyed erect, clean-limbed and vigorous, stepped aboard his train at Pendleton. He wore the handsome uniform of a railroad conductor a place to which he had steadily ascended from the bottom round of the ladder. He greeted his friends with a smile and his friends were everywhere.

On duty, he indulged in a social glass now and then with boon companions. He was popular, debonaire and liberal. He had a kind heart, and was lauded as one of the most affable conductors on the road. His revels increased in frequency for Pendleton was then and is now a sociable place and he liked to make merry with them in a drinking bout. His salary proved inadequate for this pleasant pastime, and now and then some company money went over the bar easy "pick up" and nobody to reckon with except a possible "spotter" despised by him and his kind, as the dirt beneath their feet.

But the inevitable happened. He lost his job. He took inferior positions, descending the ladder much more rapidly than he had arisen. His appetite was now a giant, powerful, persistant, insatiable. Vice claimed him at last as all its own, body and soul, and he filled a drunkard's grave.

This man was a "good fellow" and "one of the boys." He became a "poor fellow" and "one of the bums." Was the game worth the candle? Was his wrecked life worth a few years of fleeting pleasure?—Weston Leader.
