AMUSEMENT

"DORA THORNE"
At a recent meeting of the American Manager's Association a brisk conference was held regarding the relative merits, and qualifications which go to make a play an assured and lasting success. From all sides could be heard the theme of heart interest, and the most casual patron of the drama will surely agree to this. Heart interest we must have, something that goes straight home to the heart and proves its truth there. "Dora Thorne" was cited as an instance of this particular quality. "Dora Thorne" certainly does contain this self-same heart interest with all its variations, humor and pathos are combined with delightful originality. This is the Rowland & Clifford Company. Steward's Opera House Wednesday, Nov. 14.

"I'M NOT FIT TO LIVE"

THE MAIL ORDER HOUSE

The following is going the rounds of the press, tells homely truths, and is worthy of careful consideration on the part of the buyers of every community:

Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it Sears & Roebuck? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery Ward & Co., or was it your home merchant?

When you want to raise money for the church or for some needy person in town do you write to the Fair Store in Chicago or do you go to your home merchant?

How much does Siegel, Cooper & Co., give toward keeping up sidewalks or paying the ministers salary? When your loved one was buried, was it your home merchant who dropped a tear of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it Marshall Field & Co.

The above contains much food for thought and reminds us of another and similar notice that has been going the rounds of the Oregon press, and runs something like this:

Who praises the town 365 days in the year? Is it Irwin Hodson & Co.? Who fights the battles of the community as against the balance of the world? Is it Seattle printing house? Who covers you with glucose when you run for office? Is it some print-shop down in Kansas City? Who never tires working for the town and its people? Is it some type-sticker in Spokane? Who helps pay the taxes? Is it some printer in Tacoma?

Not on your life.
It is the home newspaper, and it is entitled to all the printing that is used in the community.
But it doesn't get it.
Why?—Union Republican.

HAD A CLOSE CALL

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. LITTLE, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it."
