It might be the making of Cuba to marry into a quiet, peaceable family.

It was not so close after all in Idaho, Gov. Gooding was re-elected by over 9,000.

Avoid the Christmas rush on your pocketbook by buying those presents now.

If there were no birthdays, Christmases or weddings, a man would have a chance to get ahead a few dollars.

It is possible that the pulp from our sugar factory will be manufactured into denatured alcohol.

This is ideal weather for the football teams of Island City and Elgin to contest honors, the deeper the mud the better.

It is gratifying to live in a state like Oregon where every portion is being rapidly developed and increasing in population.

San Francisco policy-holders find that even an earthquake will not jar money loose from some fire insurance companies.

The state of Washington follows the example set by Oregon in the election of 1904 when the Republicans carried every county.

Despite the disturbed political conditions, it is gratifying to notice that there are 30,000,000 turkeys fattening for Thanksgiving.

President Roosevelt has unintentionally deprived a great many poor people of a comfortable feeling by explaining that it is not a sin to be rich.

Burbank has produced an apple that is red and sweet on one side and yellow and sour on the other. Just like the home and company manners of some people.

Honey is quite likely to win in California—that is a way he has. When Honey gets into court, he is more than likely to have the evidence, and the old gang of grafters in California may well feel alarmed. The doors of the State's prison are already opening for some of the rascals. And, by the way, this seems to be a bad year for the rascals on the Pacific coast.—Ex.

REPUBLICAN IS PREPARED

In about two months Judge Robert Eakin will take his position on the Supreme Bench, and it will perhaps not be very much longer before the people of the district will know who is on the Circuit bench. In all probability, Governor Chamberlain has his mind fully made up at the present time, but this does not relieve the suspense over the district. The Governor has our permission to "let 'r fly." We are prepared for the worst—or the best.—Union Republican.

It is more than probable that over 1,000 acres of sugar beets will be grown in the Cove next year. They have the transportation facilities, the best of the land and plenty of water. This insures a success in the growing of beets.

The American Bankers Association could not agree at its recent convention on a plan for getting more money in emergencies. That seems to be the principal trouble with everybody in this world.

There is every indication that active work on the storage of the waters of the waters of Grande Ronde river for irrigation will be commenced soon. The storing and proper distribution of any waste waters is the basis for intense farming in this valley, which makes possible a large population.

Of the many cabinet changes, there are a few in Oregon who will be more pleased with the retirement of the secretary of the Interior, Mr. Hitchcock, than of all the remainder. There was a tremendous effort to have him changed but President Roosevelt refused to consider a change until after the land fraud cases were pretty well threshed out.

Tammany certainly gave Mr. Hearst the double cross. They secured his support which with their own strength gave their candidate pluralities ranging from 145,000 and up, but Mr. Hearst only received 75,000 in the same district. They accomplished their purposes. They were afraid that they could not win without the Hearst following and he was so anxious for votes that he endorsed the very machine that he had been trying to defeat during the past few years. Had he remained true to his pretended principles it is quite possible that he would have been elected. However, the only use that he had for the governorship was to use it as a prestige for the presidential nomination in 1908 and the people of New York state are to be congratulated that he was unsuccessful had he given that office no more attention than he did that of congressman.
