The roads too, are fairly well cared for, but road commissioners have been hampered with a lack of help. Laborers cannot be had at any price. The county court also inspected the poor farm last Saturday and found that institution in a flourishing condition. The court decided to make a few improvements on the farm within a few weeks.

NEW TRAIN SCHEDULE

It is rumored in this city that the schedule for passenger Number 1 will be changed about two hours, thus making the time which it will be due in La Grande about eight o'clock in the morning.

Nothing definite can be learned from local railroad officials, but it is likely that the new arrangements will take place about the twentieth of this month.

During the winter months traffic is heavy and the road bed slow, so that it is practically impossible for west bound trains to arrive on schedule time. The new arrangement does not effect the time which the passenger leaves Omaha.

ATTENTION W. R. C.
