SOCIETY

KAFFEE KLATCH

The Kaffee Klatch meets with Mrs. E. E. Bragg next Friday evening.

Last Saturday afternoon from two to five o'clock, Mrs. A. C. Haynes entertained a few intimate lady friends at her home on the North side, in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of her wedding day. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in reminiscences of girlhood days. The hostess had prepared an elaborate lunch which was served on a table very prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and roses. The same flowers were used in decorating the cozy home. The guests departed at the close of the reception leaving behind them many valuable and beautiful presents, and profuse congratulations.

Defendants Discharged

After hearing the testimony in the case of Logan Paul, charged with selling liquor to a minor, Justice of the Peace, J. E. Hough discharged the defendant.

As the same testimony was to be used in the case against H. C. Cotner, charged with allowing minors in his saloon, District Attorney Ivanhoe moved that the case be dismissed.

PUZZLE OFFICIALS

(Scripps News Association)
New York, Nov. 13—A committee of experts is sitting here today to appraise the value of imitation gems which have of late been flooding the market. New kinds of emeralds and sapphires have made their appearance and the products, while artificial, are the same in composition and properties as the natural stones that are simulated. The bogus stones have been appraised on the 20 per cent basis but the importers claim this should be reduced to 10 per cent.
