She will remain in this city a few days as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Moore before returning to her home.

A BUSY PLACE

The Golden Rule Store is certainly busy today. The rain may have kept a few from visiting the store, but they were never missed. The four large rooms were filled to overflowing and the twenty eight salespeople surely had their hands full all day. When the doors opened this morning at nine o'clock people had been standing in line for nearly an hour. If you are looking for a rest room do not visit the Golden Rule this week.

SIX MONTHS IN A CAMP WAGON

William Taylor who claims to have driven a team from Lowell Ind., to Pendleton arrived in the city last evening.

He left his home town on May 9, and consequently spent six months in his camp wagon, which is fitted up for convenience in traveling and while does not compare in size to a Umatilla county camp wagon it has some resemblance to that familiar vehicle. Mr. Taylor claims to be in search of health and recreation and will sell his outfit and return to his Indiana home after he has a view of Oregon.—Pendleton E. O.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION

Mrs. Fred Waffle, of Pendleton, was operated upon in that city this morning at the Pendleton Hospital, for appendicitis, by Drs. Volp and Moormeister, of this city. Mrs. Waffle has many friends in this city, who will be pleased to learn that the operation was successful and that she is getting along nicely.

The High Five club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock by Mesdames McCoy and Ed Murphy, at the former's home.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB MEETING

The regular meeting of the Neighborhood Club was held yesterday afternoon in the club rooms, and though the afternoon was unfavorable, there was a good attendance of the members.

The members were very enthusiastic and enjoyed the afternoon immensely in giving the important events occurring during the reigns of the kings from Henry IV to Henry VIII inclusive.

Some of the important events discussed quite fully were the battles of Shrewsbury and Agincourt; the raising of the siege of Orleans by Joan of Arc, the simple village maiden, who acted as directed by a vision and was repaid by being burned as a witch; the Wars of the Roses, beginning in 1454 and ending in 1485 with the battle of Bosworth Field; the imprisonment of the Princess in the Tower; and the methods of raising "benevolences," as "Morton's Fork," the "Star Chamber Court," and the reviving of old laws.

In addition, Mrs. G. C. Osburn led the magazine study on "Stratford-on-Avon," and Mrs. W. A. Worstell read a very interesting paper on Henry IV as given by Shakespeare. The meeting closed, after splendid reports of the general Federation delegates, Mrs. Turner Oliver and Mrs. C. H. Bidwell.

Mrs. Cora Coffin arrived this week from Walla Walla and will make her home in La Grande during the winter months.

WILL SEND MORE

MRS. TRUESDELL BURIED

Rev. O. H. King left this morning for Union to officiate at the funeral of one of Union county's respected pioneers. Mrs. Sarah Truesdell was born in Winchester, Illinois in 1854, and in 1855 she married Samuel Truesdell who died in March, 1905. With her husband they moved to Oregon in 1881, and soon after made their home in Grande Ronde Valley near Island City. About twenty years ago they made their home in Union. Mrs. Truesdell is the mother of Mrs. J. A. McCarthy of this city, Mrs. R. Akin of Elgin, O. B. Truesdell of Boise City, Jos. Truesdell of Baker City, and John Walker of Portland. Three children preceded her to the other shore, and are at rest in the Summerville cemetery, Castella aged 16, Mrs. Durcan McLean and Verona Elms at the age of eight.
