JUST SO

When everything goes crooked,
And seems inclined to rile,
Don't kick nor fuss nor fidget;
Just—you—smile!

It's hard to learn the lesson,
But learn it if you'd win;
When people tease and pester,
Just—you—grin!

When some one tries to "do" you
By taking more than half,
Be patient firm and pleasant;
Just—you—laugh!

But if you find you're stuffy
(Sometimes, of course, you will!)
And cannot smile nor grin nor laugh,
Just—keep—still!

IN THE OLDEN DAYS

Julius Caesar was revising the calendar. "I put an extra day in some months so as to make the cook stay longer," he explained.

Thus, even in the early days, they were driven to desperate expedients.

FRIENDSHIP CEASED

"Is Gobang a friend of yours?"
"He used to be, but he isn't now. He gave my boy a box of carpenter's tools just as we moved into our new house."

THEIR IDENTICAL EXPERIENCES.

Senator Hale tells a story of two Maine farmers who met in the road one day. They stopped their teams, and the following conversation took place:

"Mornin', Josh."
"Mornin', John."
"What did ye give yer hoss that had the botts?"
"Turpentine."
"Thank ye, Mornin'."
"Mornin'."

A week later the farmers met in the road again. Again they stopped their teams, and then this conversation followed:

"Mornin', Josh."
"Mornin', John."
"What did ye say ye give yer hoss when it had the botts?"
"Turpentine."
"So did I. It killed mine."
"Mine, too."
"Mornin', Josh."
"Mornin', John."

A SMALL ADVANTAGE.

During his recent visit to Washington, Joel Chandler Harris, of "Uncle Remus" fame, told of a conversation that he once heard between two Georgia piccaninies. They were discussing the recent conversation of the father of one of them.

"Has yo' pappy quit whippin' you sence he jined de church?" asked one of the piccaninies, of the other.
"Ho, he ain't quit whippin' me," said the other, "but he's quit sayin' it hurts him worse dan it does me!"

SOCIE TY

Mrs. Hattie Eckley assisted by Miss Mollie Proebstel, yesterday afternoon entertained a few friends in honor of Mrs. Bessie Murray Pennick, of Portland who is visiting in the city. The rooms were profusely decorated with potted plants, grown by the hostess. At five o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room where a delicious dinner was served. Those present being Mesdames Ida Richardson, Mabel Esterling, Winnie Wilkinson, Kate Hanley, Emma Sneh Ella Russell, Edith Currey, Miss Mary Warnick and Mrs. William Proebstel, most of whom were former schoolmates of the guest of honor and a delightful afternoon was the result.

Mrs. T. G. Scroggins yesterday afternoon entertained twenty-six lady friends at her home, at an afternoon luncheon. Five hundred was played at which Mrs. Wm. Erickson won first prize. Mrs. Van Buren second and Mrs. Rater being awarded the consolation. The color scheme thrust out was pink and green. A two course luncheon was served.

A NEW MANAGER
IN CHARGE

Seldom it is indeed, that a gentleman will continue for fourteen consecutive years to carry the responsibility of a Western Union Telegraph office in one city, and more seldom still it is, when a lady can command this distinction. But such is the record established by Mrs. Fred Houser, well known in this city as the local agent for the W. U. T. Fourteen years ago, the W. U. T. removed from the railroad office and established itself in a private office. Since that day, the office has been under the proficient management of Mrs. Houser who today completes the long service and turns the office over to her successor, Miss Nell De Paatt, who arrived this morning. Five month's vacation is all that has been allowed Mrs. Houser these long fourteen years. But overwork has caused her to resign and in response to that resignation the W. U. T. today has in this city the successor to Mrs. Houser.

THE SPECIAL MEETINGS

The special meetings now in progress in the Methodist Church, are being well attended. Last evening Rev. E. B. Hayes, of the Presbyterian Church, spoke, and this evening Rev. W. W. Deal, pastor of the Methodist Church in Union will speak on "Faith" and will assist in the meetings the remainder of the week. Rev. Deal is an earnest and convincing speaker. Those who attend will not be disappointed.

THIS IS PAY DAY

Tonight the Sugar Factory pay their two hundred and more employees. As this is the first pay day during the present campaign, it means that several thousand dollars will be placed in immediate circulation. We often fail to appreciate our permanent institutions. If the money that the Sugar Company annually pays the beet growers and employees should cease for one year, we would then realize from whence comes a great many thousands of dollars each year.
