

SNAKE RIVER ROAD NOT TO BE BUILT

It comes to the Democrat on good authority that a statement has been made by those authorized to speak that the Short Line does not intend to build the railroad down Snake River from Huntington to Lewiston in the near future. It is true that many engineers have been on the grounds this season, final surveys were made and some attempt at the assembling of material has been made. All this it is stated has been in the nature of a bluff for the purpose of holding the right of way.

On the other hand, there is equally as good authority of parties interested in the project for the statement that the road will be built right away. Of course it is a well known fact that it is now almost impossible to procure common labor at the highest wages and that the price of steel rails is almost out of sight, but it is almost certain conditions will change by the springtime, and while not much work can possibly be done this winter, it would be reasonable for beginning the construction work early next year. Besides this only a few weeks ago, the owners of the Iron Dyke mine stated they would build the Huntington railroad themselves if no one else did. The outcome of the matter will be watched with not a little interest here.—Baker City Democrat.

FITZGERALD BUYS THE SITE

Papers have been signed whereby D. Fitzgerald, proprietor of the La Grande Iron Works, becomes the owner of four lots on the corner of Washington and Sixth street. The transfer also includes the blacksmith shop building which Mr. Fitzgerald has been leasing and using in connection with his foundry. Mr. Fitzgerald had been the owner of the main building and foundry building for considerable time, but the lots on which the works stand, were leased from H. L. Alexander of Imbler. Since the transfer Mr. Fitzgerald is the sole owner of the site buildings and all.

Considerable additions to his plant, is the plan of the iron worker and as soon as the weather will allow, the entire plant will be enlarged.

CORVALLIS SEVERAL TIMES VICTORIOUS

(Observer Special)

Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 17, 1906. In a hotly contested game here the second team succeeded in defeating the O. S. N. S. by a score of 2 to 0.

O. A. C. kicked off and during the first five minutes of play got the ball on Monmouth's 1 yard line, when O. A. C. lost it on a fumble. For the rest of the half the playing was on Monmouth's field and the half ended in the middle of the field.

SECOND HALF

The second half was a good punting match in which O. A. C. got a trifle the better of it. On the kickoff O. A. C. fumbled and Monmouth got the ball. In the third down O. A. C. got the ball on a fumble. O. A. C. punted and Brodie got the ball on a fumble. During the remainder of the game neither team tried to make yardage but punted immediately on receiving the ball. Gradually O. A. C.

worked down to Monmouth's 25 yd. line. Here a punt was signaled for McMinn who kicked an easy one and Monmouth got the ball on their own 1 yard line. In an attempt to punt out of danger the punt was blocked but a Monmouth man fell on it scoring a safety.

Halley played a good game the first half and got two ribs fractured and didn't go in the second half.

Lineup:

NOT THE BOY

Walla Walla, Nov. 19—Word was received in this city yesterday from R. L. Brittan, who went to Albuquerque, N. M., in search of his little son Cecil, who disappeared in the mountains near the Toll Gate last summer, that the child who had been watched and guarded by parties seeking the reward which has been offered for the return of the boy was not Cecil.

A Mother Testifies

This is to certify that my daughter was down for almost one year with a cold. The doctors finally pronounced it consumption. We had given up hope for her recovery. I was given a sample bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. I gave it all to her in about three hours. It stopped the cough, and gave her rest. I sent next day and bought a 50c. bottle and began giving it. In three month's time she was well. There can not be too much said in favor of Foley's Honey and Tar. It saved my child's life.
