It is quite apparent that a bill will be introduced in the legislature to put the state printer on a flat salary.

The city council of Pendleton revoked two saloon keepers license during the past week. Walla Walla did likewise a few weeks ago.

"Shirt waists one-third off" is an advertisement that recently appeared in a Buffalo paper. Shocking but it must have caused a rush of men to that store.

Mr. Hearst says that he is never to be a candidate again. He is right. He never should have been. He can do much more with his large papers than he can by being tied up to the detail work of any office. The question is will he do it.

Tomorrow evening the council meets to hear the report of the Beaver Creek water project to be submitted by City Engineer Pickler. The new city charter will also be presented. It will be an unusually important session.

The board of control of the Washington penitentiary is seriously thinking of doing away with the lock step and stripes. It is a barbarous and antiquated custom. Oregon several years ago abolished it, our convicts now wear a gray uniform, and other states have done likewise. Rigid discipline is necessary but it is only a question of time when all the states will abolish the degrading lock step and stripes.

HAD A CLOSE CALL

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. LITTLE, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. at Newlin Drug Co., druggists.

Now is the time to have your old umbrella recovered. Smith will do the work.

The following are a few shots from Editor White of the Emporia (Kan.) Gazette:

"The man who buys his goods of a mail order house and expects his neighbors in Emporia to buy goods of him, or buy labor of him, or to buy professional service of him is economically a leech. He is sucking industrial blood out of the town and gives none back. He sends his profits out of town like a Chinaman, and has no more right to a standing in the community than a foreigner. We are all neighbors industrially in this town, and the man who sends away for his goods is not one of us. He is of another industrial system, and deserves no man's support in Emporia.

"The fact that this is economically wrong is recognized by the mail order houses themselves. They protect their customers as thieves by offering to keep people from knowing where the goods were purchased by having no 'tags' on them. They say in their catalogue that no one knows where they were bot. If it is proper to hide the place of purchase of an article, it is wrong to buy the article at that place. Only a man who steals is a man who is ashamed to say where he got anything he has. There is such a thing as 'tainted' dry goods, 'tainted' groceries and 'tainted' furniture. All of such articles that are not purchased at home, of men who befriend you, of men whom you owe your living, are 'tainted' because they come unfairly.

"If you want to support your fellow townsmen, and want to except it without a blush, buy at home whenever possible."
