Mrs. Dr. Moore and Miss Margaret Porter entertain the Kaffeeklatch at the Moore home this evening.

One of the most pleasant and unique society events of the season took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. U. G. Couch of Island City. About forty friends were invited in to celebrate an "Old Time Thanksgiving Party."

The house decorations were in keeping with the occasion. The prize pumpkin and squash were in evidence, strings of apples and rings of pumpkin were in process of drying by the stove, and baskets of great, lucious red apples were placed about the rooms just as they used to be, and before the afternoon was spent the apples had disappeared just as they used to do.

The hostess was dressed in a dainty Martha Washington gown, and was assisted in receiving by Miss Edna McCall who was gowned in a brown empire. At two o'clock the guests began to arrive, arrayed in beautiful antiques made after the style of the polonaise, paniers and furbelows. Old brooches, pretty shawls, and bits of real lace that had been treasured away so long were brot out and worn on this occasion.

The afternoon was spent in knitting, quilting and conversation. Several vocal solos were rendered by Miss Gaskill. The two-course luncheon was served from a table, which in its decoration was suggestive of old times, and was presided over by the hostess, who was assisted by Misses McCall, Thomas and Gaskill. Cider was poured from an immense old Dutch pitcher, and coffee from an old copper kettle.

The guests invited were as follows: Mesdames Arthur McCall, F. Zierbrick, Ed Halley, W. Couch, J. M. McCall, A. A. Couch, G. Ackles, Wardell, F. Gaskill, B. Thomas, A. Blockland, W. Hall, M. S.
