NAUGHTON WRITES ON PUGDOM

Steinway & Sons' Remarkable
Record in the Piano
Industry

THE WORLD'S GREATEST PIANO CONCERN PASSES THE "HUNDRED MILLION DOLLAR MARK"

The world's leading authorities on musical matters all agree that there has been no more important contributing factor to musical progress than the industry of piano production. It is therefore that the individual records made by the leading manufacturers are of more than passing importance to the world of human events. For the first time in man's history a certain epoch of productive value (as distinguished from artistic results), has been marked by the world's acknowledged leading piano concern, and has become a matter that must be considered as of national importance. The announcement has been made that

OVER A HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF STEINWAY PIANOS HAVE BEEN SOLD

While this, in itself, is a remarkable record, how much more so indeed does it become when one takes into consideration the fact that it has been accomplished strictly on the merits of the instrument itself.

The universal recognition that has been bestowed upon the Steinway Piano, as further exemplified by the above mentioned total value of pianos produced, shows that art and industry are indeed closely allied; that the leading musical authorities, as well as the general music loving public, has not been slow to appreciate the fact that the farthest point of progress has been attained by this instrument. Not alone is this true as regards the tone qualities, action, workmanship and finish, but also as to the truly artistic design of the cases. This is one of the policies that characterize the progressive conduct of the great business of Steinway & Sons.

The above was published by the New York Mercantile and Financial Times, November 3, 1906.

Steinway supremacy is acknowledged the world over. This is the standard by which all other pianos are measured. Manufacturers, dealers, musicians, and people in general, everywhere recognize the supremacy of the Steinway.

When you hear it disputed you have only to investigate to find that some financial interest in another direction is the reason for the assumed antagonism.

La Grande now has a Steinway house. Besides the Steinway, we have Knabe, Everett, A. B. Chase, Packard, Fischer, Ludwig, Conover, Estey, Emerson, Kingsbury, Cable, Wellington, Mendelssohn Sterling, and many other standard makes. We invite you to visit our store. We promise you courteous treatment, "An honest value at an honest price", and satisfactory terms.

"The house of quality."

A. B. HUELAT, Agent.
