CANADIAN IMMIGRATION TO SETTLE

(Scripps News Association)
Quebec, Nov. 24—Up to the present date 112,000 immigrants booked to settle in Canada have landed at this port. The immigration this season by far surpasses all others for the quality as well as quantity of new settlers. The Salvation Army 'hrot out no less than 15,000 for whom they have secured positions and homes in advance, and next year the immigration branch of that Institution expects to bring to Canada 25,000 settlers and get them positions and homes which will be secured for them by its officers during the coming winter months.

DUCKS AND GEESE PLENTIFUL

(Scripps News Association)
Astoria, Oregon, Nov. 28—Very large flocks of wild ducks and geese are settling along the swamps and tributaries of the Columbia river. The number this year by far exceeds that of any previous year since 1897. Owing to the mildness of the breeding season, the fowls are in splendid plump condition and will find a ready market. A very large number of hunters licenses are being issued.

RUNNING OUT OF TIMBER

(Scripps News Association)
Winona, Minn., Nov. 28—The exhaustion of the lumber supply hurried forward several years by the great forest fires in Wisconsin some years ago, has been the means of closing several large lumber mills in this district. Up to the present three mills, operating several million feet of timber a year each, have been closed down and it has now been announced that one of the largest mills in this district will close operations in a very short time.
