AMUSEMENT

Following is a clipping from the Oregon City Enterprise on the merits of Mrs. Reed, who will soon give a recital in this city:

The musical event of the winter was the recital given by Mrs. Walter Reed in the Woodman hall, under the auspices of the Dentick Club.

The hall was crowded to the doors and was decorated with palms, Oregon grape and ferns, which were arranged with exquisite taste and presented a striking appearance. Mrs. Reed was never in better voice and her rich contralto rang strong and true.

All of her numbers were received with delight and applause. Her opening numbers were concluded by "The Kauza" (Chadwick) which was enthusiastically received. "I'm Herlest" and two old French songs were grand. In this cluster the artist threw her whole soul and the climax was all that the heart could desire and the mind could not conceive of songs more beautiful and thrilling than these.

"A Red Red Rose," "Annie Laurie" and "Shonggie," "Shonggie Ma Bairnie" these catchy songs were received by the audience with marked pleasure and might perhaps be called the gems of the evening. After hearing Mrs. Reed in these one can easily understand how she has won the reputation of being the true artist that she is in her renditions of her Scotch songs. "Mighty Lak a Rose" was artistically rendered in a delicate style that was sweet and winning and she graciously responded to the repeated requests for her re-appearance "La Dauza" a meapolete Tarabelle (Rossini) which was gorgeous classed an evening of song which will long linger in the minds of the listeners as one of unalloyed pleasure. Beautiful flowers were bestowed upon the singer and with her magnificent voice and charming personality she has won a place in the hearts of the people of Oregon City.

The realistic saw mill scene in "Uncle Josh Spruceby" the down East play, comes nearer to the genuine article than any of the many stage effects now before the public. In fact, so real is the 36 inch buzz saw, that one of the actors of the play had his right hand cut off at the wrist during a performance last season in Illinois.

No play nowadays is complete without something in the way of mechanical effects. "Uncle Josh Spruceby" lays claim to one of the most novel scenes of any piece on the road this season. A full and entirely practical saw mill is placed upon the stage and appropriate scenery is used to make a superior stage picture. When the heroine is rescued from her perilous position at the climax of the act the hearty applause gives evidence of the appreciation of this acme of stage realism.

The patrons of Stewards opera house will be entertained Tuesday, Nov. 4, by the big comedy production, "Uncle Josh Spruceby." This popular play comes well recommended and will no doubt be received with enthusiasm here. The piece is staged with every attention to stage realism. All the scenes are well mounted and acted. The startling saw-mill scene is said to be a masterpiece of stage mechanism. Many specialties are introduced and the superb solo orchestra carried by the company all go to make this a very delightful production.
