LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

AMUSEMENT

UNCLE JOSH

"Uncle Josh Sprucey" was played to a medium sized house last evening. At time the "reubenness" of the play was really humorous, and the songs by the leading feminine character were good. On the whole the caste of characters was not overly strong. During the first act, some one intending to play a practical joke, inclosed an alarm clock in several wrappings of paper and started the noise. The perpetrator doubtless underestimated the disturbance the joke would cause, for the first act was more or less marred by the noise coming from within the box. Later the noise was revived but the actor who happened to be on the boards, suspended business long enough to order the ejection of the disturber.

THE BENEFIT RECITAL

Mr. Arthur Alexander is considered to be one of the greatest American tenors. His voice is a pure, high tenor of beautiful quality, and he commands an extensive repertoire of English, French, Italian and German songs. Not the least interesting part of his mark is the fact that he plays his own accompaniments. The Portland Oregonian says of him: "Triumph of the evening went to Arthur Alexander, who after singing the aria 'Tristram and Iseult' was forced to add two encores, the tenor solos from 'Rigolette', which brot down the house.

A RARE TREAT

The production of Martha Morton's new comedy, "The Illusion of Beatrice" by the youngest dramatic star on the American stage, Miss Maude Fealy, will be one of the most important events of the present season. Miss Fealy and her superb company will be seen at Stewards opera house Tuesday, Dec. 11, and a large and fashionable audience is looked for on that occasion. In "The Illusion of Beatrice," Miss Fealy has a role that is exactly suited to her girlish and fascinating temperament. She has been accorded high honors in this play in all the cities where she has been presented this season, by her manager, John Cort, who has spared no expense in placing Maude Fealy before the public, in a manner worthy of her exceptional ability.

BENEFIT RECITAL

DEC. 12

Mesdames A. L. Richardson and A. R. French announce that the date secured for the benefit music recital which has been planned, is Dec. 12. There was some undecision with the local promoters as to the date, but they have secured this date and are now working with redoubled energy to make the recital successful. Press comments from Washington as well as this state, give high praise to the abilities of Mrs. Reed and Mr. Alexander.

ESTRAY NOTICE

Came to my place south of town a yearling steer, black with white spots, invisible brand on hip and slit in each ear. Has been there about a month. Owner can have same by calling and paying the pasture bill and other charges.

A VICTOR

THAN THE MONEY

"HIS MASTER'S VOICE"

That's the way the customers who buy a Victor feel about it. They look upon the money as well-spent and are more than satisfied with the Victor and the store that sold it to them.

They get their full measure of fun and enjoyment out of it and keep on buying new Victor Records all the time.

What would please all the family as much as a Victor for Christmas.

Come in and hear the New Records.
