LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PRINCIPAL MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantages of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 5 to 15. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

AMUSEMENT

THE BENEFIT RECITAL

Mr. Arthur Alexander is considered to be one of the greatest American tenors. His voice is a pure, high tenor of beautiful quality, and he commands an extensive repertoire of English, French, Italian and German songs.

Not the least interesting part of his mark is the fact that he plays his own accompaniments.

The Portland Oregonian says of him: "Triumph of the evening went to Arthur Alexander, who after singing the aria 'Tristram and Isolt' was forced to add two encores, the tenor aria from 'Rigoletto', which trot down the house."

The present tour of Maud Fealy, the youngest dramatic star on the American stage, is one of the most successful of the season, and the former talented leading woman of the late Sir Henry Irving, is meeting with flattering praise in every city in which she has seen her latest triumph, the comedy by Martha Morton, entitled "The Illusion of Beatrice", the New York Telegraph recently said: "Not in many years has a star won so pronounced a success as has dainty Maude Fealy in Martha Morton's latest creation. The role of Beatrice fits Miss Fealy like a glove and her impersonation is of a high artistic plane. The production is one of the really few genuine successes of the day."

Miss Fealy will be seen here at Steward's opera house, Tuesday, Dec. 11.

THEY'D RATHER HAVE

THAN THE MONEY

That's the way the customers who buy a Victor feel about it. They look upon the money as well-spent and are more than satisfied with the Victor and the store that sold it to them.

They get their full measure of fun and enjoyment out of it and keep on buying new Victor Records all the time.

What would please all the family as much as a Victor for Christmas.

Come in and hear the New Records.
