AMUSEMENT

Maud Fealy, the talented young star, who is to be seen at the Steward's opera house, Tuesday, Dec. 11, in Martha Morton's latest comedy, "The Illusion of Beatrice", has two distinctions of which she may well be proud. To be accorded the title of "the youngest dramatic star on the American stage" and to be designated "the most beautiful woman in the world" are possessions that are rare. Miss Fealy was the leading woman of the late Sir Henry Irving at an age when most young ladies are still in college. She was declared to be "the most beautiful woman in the world" by a jury of experts in Paris, last year, when the photographs of Miss Fealy were awarded the first prize in the contest for the world's most beautiful women. In "The Illusion of Beatrice", the author, Martha Morton, has supplied Miss Fealy with a role that is suited to her girlish and pleasing personality. The play has scored a triumph wherever it has been seen, and the manager of Miss Fealy, John Cort, will present the young star here, with a select New York company and surrounded with a complete production.

The indications are that the appearance of Maud Fealy here will be one of the fashionable events of the season.

DEC 25 UNCLE A HORSE

The greatest Christmas gift of the season will be the long riding pony for Mrs. Walter Reed and Arthur A. A. of Portland. No doubt this expert will bring out the most beautiful horse of anything ever seen in La Grande.

EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY

Business lots in the nearest block to the George Palmer Lumber Company's large saw mill, due east of the mill. This block 12, Rynearson's Addition to the town of La Grande. Remember this is not only the nearest, but almost the only block suitable for business purposes. I will sell you a lot, or sell you a lot and build you a business house on the installment plan, or build a business house and rent it to you. Remember there is a nice grove and the finest soil. Do not miss this opportunity. If you want the best place for a summer resort along side of the sparkling waters of beautiful Grande Ronde river, I will sell you block No. 7. This is the best chance to make a swimming pool and a fish pond. I do not mean a fishing pond for commercial purposes. Now the Palmer Lumber Company will employ one hundred and fifty people the year through. This number of families and the surrounding neighbors will easily keep up a good store. Regarding the resort, La Grande people will keep that up. There is a good road to it. If you own the ground, no crank can come along and run your business, except the boys you want. J. L. MARS.

WOODMEN SOCIAL

The Woodmen of the World will give a social and entertainment at their hall next Friday evening, beginning at 7:30. All members of the lodge, with their families, are invited. A special invitation is given to the ladies of Woodcraft and members of other camps, who may happen to be in the city. There will be no business session of the camp at this meeting but the entire evening will be given over to amusement.

The entertainment will be elaborate. An excellent moving picture machine, in fact, the best that can be had, will give views from various parts of the United States. Speakers of repute will also be there. The best local talent in music will be heard during the program. All members of the local lodge may invite one friend, the friend being privileged to bring his family, if he has one. There will be no charge, the entertainment and refreshment being gratis.

is perhaps the most important point in securing a good picture, and it's a point to which we give much care. We study each subject and bring out the character individuality of the face to the best advantage.
