If Harriman wants to make Oregon a welcome Christmas gift, says an exchange, let him send 2000 freight cars.

Eastern Oregon can furnish a presiding officer for the senate, all right, if necessary, and it may prove to be so.-Pendleton

A real bona fide optimist is one who can feel bright and cheerful on the foggiest day that Walla Walla ever saw Anybody ought to feel happy on such a bright balmy day as we had yesterday .-

The temptations found in city life for the young man from the country are many, but if home training has been properly given, the parents need have but little anx lety about their boys who may seek employment in a large city. A boy with brains and pluck will succeed anywhere. Parents should not forget that those who employ labor in the metropolis districts insist on temperate workers. Upon railroads, in factories, stores, machine shops and offices, only temperate persons are tolerated and the intemperate youth soon finds his place taken by a sober one Every day, every year, we find our young men and women taking positions for which they are not fitted. There are plenty of misfits in this busy world simply because the individual does not do his or her thinking. Experience often demonstrates what the individual is test fitted for and it may take some little time before the young man or woman finds the right road to travel. However it is much easier to follow the road of life if the individual will do a little straight thinking on his or her account. Many things are to be considered carefully. Natural fitness and in clination are important elements. The advice of parents should be considered. But in all walks of life, no matter how humble the pursuit may be. the foundation of success is embedded in good habits. Clean living, right thinking and plenty of action are the key notes looking toward the rounding out of a useful, happy life.

A SPLENDID EDITION

The Eugene Daily Guard has just issued a spiendid edition of the resources of Eugene and Lane county, generously illustrated and replete with the magnificent resources of that celebrated portion of the grand old state of Oregon.

The address by Senator R. A. Booth on Obligations to Railroads" and which appeared yesterday morning with Mr. Booth name inadvertantly omitted, was one of the ablest and wisest speeches made during the convention. He hit the nail on the head when he said. "The head of the Oregon lines is a busy man-so busy, in fact, keeping other fellows cut of Oregon, that he cannot get anything out of Oregon himself."-Eugene Register.

A SPIENDID SHOWING

Postmaster Richey states that the increase in the business of the La Grande postoffice for the year which closes in March, will show an increase over the previous year of over $100 per month. Postoffice receipts do not increase during periods of stagnation.

Wide awake merchants, through their stocks, truly represent the prosperity of the community wherein located. Everyone knows that the year 1906 has been the most prosperous in the history of La Grande and Union county. In years of prosperity, the Christmas trade always exceeds that of dull seasons. A review of the immense stocks now being displayed by our merchants certainly bespeaks of our prosperity, and the advance sales already made, means that, great as they are, very little stock will be found upon the shelves after the holidays are
