CATHOLIC FAIR

The fair is drawing to a close and most of the articles on the fancy tables have been sold, but there are a few left which will repay inspection.

Among the features of the fair is a free scholarship in Miss Slattery's Business College. Mrs. McCoy of Old Town will explain the conditions to all who wish to enter the race. Thursday night the ten prizes will be drawn at the close of the fair.

RELATIVES IN LA GRANDE

Rev. Joseph Hanna, the pioneer Presbyterian minister of this state who died recently and was buried at Corvallis last Monday, was the uncle of Herbert Hanna official court reporter of this city. He was also a near relative of Hon. Judge Eakin.

Rev. Mr. Hanna was a pioneer, both of Oregon and of Presbyterianism in Oregon. He came to the state in 1852 and settled in Marysville, now Corvallis. There he organized a Presbyterian congregation in 1853. At the second meeting of the Presbytery of Oregon, held October 1853 then consisting of Rev. Lewis Thompson, Dr. E. E. Geary, and Rev. Robert Robe, Rev. Mr. Hanna was received from the Presbytery of Wooster, O., and his name, together with that of the church at Corvallis, consisting of five members was enrolled by the Presbytery.
