BUSINESS COLLEGE INLARGING

Pendleton Business college has just been sold by Prof. and Mrs. E. M. Churchill, who have conducted it for the past three years, to Miss M. M. Slattery, of the Standard Commercial college of Spokane, who also conducts the business college at La Grande.

Pendleton Business college was founded in 1899 and has been in the hands of a number of proprietors since its birth. It has been a notable attraction in the educational life of Pendleton and has brought a large number of young people from all parts of the inland empire to this city for a business education.

Miss Slattery is an experienced business college woman and will add new features and make it attractive in every way. She is a graduate of Oshkosh Normal school and of the University of Wisconsin, and has had a large practical experience in the management of commercial schools.

Prof. and Mrs. Churchill have not yet decided upon their future work, but will perhaps remain in this city or vicinity.

Miss Slattery, in speaking of the prospects of the college, said to the East Oregonian today:

"With this excellent foundation to build on, Pendleton can boast a business college second to none in the west. It is my intention to add to the already efficient corps of teachers two of the strongest commercial men that money can procure."
