SMALLER THAN WALLOWA COUNTY

The delinquent tax list which is now being advertised for this county, is practically one half less than the delinquent list for Wallowa county, according to a statement made by Sheriff Blakely of our adjoining county. Wallowa's list reaches nearly six thousand dollars while that of Union County is some less than three thousand.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Fred Swaney yesterday afternoon entertained the High Five Club. Prizes were won by Mesdames J. Roesch and J. H. Aikine.

Mrs. J. J. Carr is entertaining the afternoon Kaffee Klatch this afternoon.

FUNERAL TODAY

The remains of James Gregory, who was instantly killed at Hot Lake recently, were buried this afternoon. Citizens of La Grande, who were friends of Gregory before his sudden death, have personally subscribed to a fund to properly bury the remains. Relatives of the dead man could not be communicated with, and to avoid having him buried like a common pauper, friends raised the necessary amount by subscription.

COURT HOUSE ITEMS

H. O. Gorham and H. Rothchilds, with firm name of Gorham & Rothchilds, have filed a complaint with the county clerk to recover $394.88 from H. K. Johnson. All parties named in the complaint are residents of North Powder.

Sommer Bros. have filed a complaint to recover a promissory note of $586.75 from F. Daron et al.

VALUATIONS SENT OUT

The assessed valuation of each school district in the county has been taken from the tax roll of Union county for 1906 and will be forwarded to the school districts of the county. The school boards of the districts, and the city councils of the cities will levy a special school tax in accordance with the assessed valuations sent them. The assessed valuation for the city of La Grande, is $1,069,874.00. The school levies must be returned to the County Clerk before January 1.

ONE MORE OPPORTUNITY

Those who desire to secure a few of these handsome Lewis & Clark souvenir plates may do so at the small cost of twenty-three cents each at the Golden Rule Company. These plates were originally used for the display of the Union County Fruit Exhibit, and were purchased by the Golden Rule Company at a great reduction. The plates when in the hands of the Lewis & Clark Fair management sold for one dollar each. While they last at twenty-three cents.
