By hard work, push and energy we have given the people of Union county one of the most complete and up-to-date drug stocks in Eastern Oregon, and now at this time we have on display a

He has lectured and entertained in many of our great cities and is pronounced a wonder. Hear and see him. Tickets only 50 and 25 cents at Selder's.

XMAS EVE BELL

It is a charming and extremely lovable Dorothy Vernon that was portrayed by Alberta Gallatin at the Tacoma theatre last night, in the historical romance "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall."
Miss Gallatin has, beside her voice and beauty, a great deal of ability. She is an actress not yet come to her own, but should she keep on doing as well as she did last night it will not be long before the American public will recognize her as one of the country's artists.

The play is a charming romance of the Elizabethan period and, tho closely associated with historical episodes, the interest except for the strong love story which the play contains.

CIMAXES ARE STRONG

Charles Major, the author, has drawn his characters as one sees them in the pages of history. The scenery, too, is correct in every detail, the representation of Haddon Hall being an especially beautiful piece of work. The climaxes are strong and tho the play does not allow for much emotion yet Miss Gallatin is able to draw all there is from the lines.

James K. Applebee as the jester does splendid work. The part is a minor one, but this does not hide his histrionic abilities from the audience. He is a good actor and one would like to see him in something bigger. Stewards opera house Monday Dec. 24.
