THINGS OF INTEREST IN EUGENE

U. of O. December 12, 1906—La Grande students are all well. James Neil will spend Christmas in Salem. The others will be at home for turkey.

The Glee Club sings in Eugene tonight. They have been well received at Salem and at Albany. From here they will go into Southern Oregon returning Friday. They will sing in Portland on January 4 "Spider" Kelly has taken Rountree's place as impersonator and is giving some "killing" stunts.

A reception to the Oregon foot ball team of 1906 was given last Friday evening in the Commercial Club Parlors. The event was a success in every particular.

Friday evening, a pleasant party was held at the home of Prof. Schafer. All students majoring in the department of English History were invited. The guests passed the evening in playing games and eating taffy.

Congressman-elect Hawley spoke at Assembly last week on "The Development of the United States, with particular relation to Oregon". His address was scholarly, and was well received.
