A GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.

MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 5. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be admitted to remain in this school who do not study. Opposite the Foley House over the candy store. Phone. 473.

BISHOP M'CABE IS DEAD

(Scripture News Association)

New York, Dec. 19.—Chas. McCabe, known generally as the "Fighting Bishop" of the Methodist Episcopal church, died at 5:25 this morning. He left the ministry to enter the army and served in an Ohio regiment during the civil war. He was wounded and imprisoned in Libby. After the war he returned to the ministry and in 1896 was elected Bishop. Bishop McCabe made $100,000 on his lecture "The Bright Side of Libby Prison", all of which he turned over to the fund in the church for the building of schools and orphanages.

THE GREAT MANSFIELD

Dr. A. E. Freeman of this city engaged as official osteopath to Richard Mansfield, Cairo, has the distinction of furnishing the official health preserver to the great and only Richard Mansfield, the most renowned actor of the age. Mr. Mansfield is—er—well—peculiar in many ways. One of his peculiarities is that he doesn't believe in medicine. He has his ills and aches cured to the Kirkville, Mo. system. Osteopathy is the thing for him and he has just closed a contract with Dr. A. E. Freeman of this city to act as his special osteopath during his five months' tour of this country.

If all the tales regarding Mr. Mansfield are true, Dr. Freeman's job may not be the easiest in the world. The distinguished actor is said to be very much of a "pill and quite hard to please on any and all subjects. However, traveling on a special train, enjoying all sorts of luxuries and drawing a $400 a month salary may more than make up for all the peculiarities of the great actor.

Dr. Freeman's wife will remain in Cairo and with Dr. C. N. Sterry of Jerseyville, Ill., look after his practice in Cairo. From the Citizen, Cairo, Ill., Nov. 22.
