BISHOP BUILDING UP SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Bishop Scadding of the diocese of Oregon of the Episcopal church is a great Sunday school enthusiast and during his trips over the diocese he has encouraged the priests to devote as much of their time as possible to the younger generation.

His latest move is the distribution of literature including instructions for the teachers in the Sunday schools. A quantity of this literature has been received by the local rector who is working among the children of the church in an effort to build up a strong school in Baker City.—Baker City Herald.
