ALBERTA GOLLATIN CHRISTMAS EVE

AMUSEMENT

CHRISTMAS DATE

Miss Alberta Gallatin, starring in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" the play built from Charles Major's book, comes to Stewards' opera house on Monday, December 24.

The time of the play dates back to the happy-go-lucky days of the good Queen Bess, and the neighborhood in which the action is supposed to have taken place is that surrounding Haddon Hall, one of the best preserved of the Elizabethan manor houses. The story was dramatized by Paul Kester. The star appears as a willful and imperious young girl, vibrant between determined self-indulgence and splendid self-abnegation. She is in turn playful and serious, self-centered and self-forgetful, domineering and submissive, and filled with a cunning, altogether without guile, a character which gives Miss Gallatin ample scope for the display of her talents. A strong supporting company is carried.

SALTON SEA IS AGAIN FLOODED

(Scripture News Association)

Yuma, Ariz., Dec. 20—The breaking of the two dikes which caused the entire Colorado river to again flow into the Salton Sea has caused irreparable damage and it is feared that the Government Laquea dam irrigation project will become an impossibility. A rough estimate shows that up to the present $25,000,000 damage has been done. The Southern Pacific Railroad engineers today commenced the construction forty miles of road around the Salton Sea about fifty feet above the present line. By the breaking of the dikes thousands of people have lost their houses and a quarter of a million acres of farming lands have been submerged.

DOING WELL

The Cuban Review, under the head of "Notes From Omaja" has the following to say of Mr. Platt who was formerly in the nursery business in this city.

"Mr. Platt's vegetable garden is doing excellently. He has raised good crops of watermelons, tomatoes, Kaffir corn, beans, and cucumbers. His oranges are doing well and he is putting out quite a lot more. Mr. Platt, along with many others, is convinced that this soil will grow anything; accordingly he is about to put out some celery."
