

OF THE CHOICEST IN THE LAND
 Fall made and brave men—the most cultured, the widest traveled, the fittest to judge of fitting fare for the table, can find naught but praise as their opinion of our Thanksgiving groceries or the fancy luxuries prosperity permits. Our large buying and moderate pricing has much to do with putting groceries of the best sort into the homes of people of ordinary means. A small trial order will convince you of the superiority of our store and our sales methods.

INVENTOR OF HELIOGRAPH

(Scripps News Association)
 London, Dec 24—Col. C. E. Haynes, Royal Engineer who retires on half pay today, under the five years rule, was the officer in the Zulu campaign, who by means of an improvised heliograph—an ordinary shaving glass belonging to a guardsman—signaled to Col. Pearson, who was holding Ekowe that reinforcements were coming. It was only after days of persistent endeavors to attract the attention of the invested Garrison that Col. Haynes, had the reward of finding that he had been "read."

MAHOGANY SHIPMENT FROM AFRICA

(Scripps News Association)
 New Orleans, Dec. 24.—The largest consignment of mahogany logs ever received in the United States has arrived here on the steamship Tactician from Africa. It consists of 29 logs whose combined weight is estimated at 180,000 pounds. One of the logs is claimed to be the biggest ever seen in this country. It weighed more than 14,000 pounds and is thirty feet long. The logs were hauled out of the jungle by elephants and not one of them weighs less than 6,000. They are consigned to a Mobile furniture dealer.

BEGINNING OVER AGAIN
 Miller and West, the well diggers who have the contract for digging an artesian well in the railroad yards, are, after a short delay, beginning over again in a new location. They had reached a depth of eighty feet, when the drill broke, an incident which necessitated to choose a new beginning. Immediately after Christmas the drill will again begin its descent five feet back of original site.

ATTENTION

THE FIRST OF ITS KIND.

The Newlin Drug Company, ever alert to the best interests of its patrons, and realizing the imperative need of a public telephone station where shoppers can reach a telephone for the local exchange without cost, have at a considerable expense installed a public telephone at their store. This telephone is for the use of the public and anyone wishing to use this phone is at liberty to do so without charge. The public is invited to use this phone at any time. Another feature which this enterprising firm has inaugurated, is a stamp department where persons wishing stamps in any quantity or any denomination can find them at no additional cost over the government price. When down town call at the Newlin Drug Company's store and see the splendid holiday display.

A NEW DEPARTURE

In order to meet the continually increasing demand for my tamales, I have made special arrangements whereby I am now in position to furnish hot chicken tamales in quantities to parties upon short notice. In order that the tamales may retain a hot juicy flavor, all party orders will be delivered in one of my new copper patent steamers, thus enabling the hostess to serve them "Hot" and "Fresh."
 A trial order will convince you that my tamales, "are the proper thing." All orders delivered promptly, and at the exact hour desired. Let me fill your Xmas candy order. Parlors open after all shows.
