SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Neri Ackles last evening celebrated their silver wedding day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ackles. About thirty-five friends of the family were present and partook of the good will and happiness that permeated the atmosphere of the occasion. The host and hostess received their friends in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day, at the home of Mr. Ackles' father and mother. Early in the evening music was rendered by Misses Elsie Couch, of Island City, Dollie Zuber and Elsie Ackles. When luncheon was announced, the bridal party, consisting of the host and hostess, who were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Osburne, Geo. Ackles and Mrs. Wilbur of Union, were ushered into the dining room by a wedding march by Miss Elsie Couch, with as much ardor and happiness, as did the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago. The dining room was decorated with more than ordinary taste and skill. Above the festal board hung a huge snowy bell, and from the fastenings of this ornament to the corners of the room were hung many silver ropes that glistened in the candlelight of the room. Sideboards and even the huge clock on the mantle were covered with silver ropes and imitation snow. As the group was seated, waiters waited on it with a four-course luncheon. This phase of the celebration was up to the high standard already created and was a genuine treat.

The remainder of the house was prettily decorated in Christmas greens and formed a pretty contrast with the white and silver of the dining room.

The silver bride and groom were recipients of many valuable presents, all of which were of heavy silver varieties. It was close on to midnight before the anniversary came to a close, and when the guests withdrew it was after the bride and groom had been congratulated and wished the best of luck for a long life.

A pretty little house wedding was solemnized last evening at six o'clock at the M. McMurray home, when Miss Blanche McMurray was united in marriage to Archie E. Kelley of Perry, by Rev. C. E. Deal of the Methodist church. About thirty guests witnessed the ceremony and partook of the nuptial supper which was served immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley will be at home to their friends in a pretty little home in Perry where the groom is employed in the sawmills of that place.

A pretty Christmas party was given yesterday afternoon by Miss Donna Boarden to four of her friends. The hostess had secured a booth at the Spokane Cafe, and had it decorated with so much taste and labor that when the guests were ushered in, the place resembled a shady nook in a pine forest more than a booth in a restaurant. On the table was a miniature Christmas tree, beautifully lighted with tiny candles and loaded down with presents for the guests. An elaborate spread was then arranged. The guests were Miss Netta Leap, Messrs. Clarence Turner of Portland, D. S. Crowe and Chas. Kernan.
