LA GRANDE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

PROF. DAY, PRINCIPAL.
MRS. DAY, ASSISTANT.

This is one of the best musical institutions in the state, and that people in this city and valley are beginning to discover the advantage of this school. The system is the latest and most practical, and includes all the latest discoveries in the art of teaching music. The school is divided into two departments: No. 1 is for beginners from 5 years or more and are taught the first three grades. Pupils come one hour each day. This is no kindergarten system but far superior. In No. 2 the grades are from 3 to 16. Here they graduate. Pupils take one or two lessons a week as they desire. No scholars will be permitted to remain in this school who do not study.

AMUSEMENT

AT CRIPPLE CREEK

"At Cripple Creek". E. J. Carpenter's latest success, is one of the treats of the season in store for the patrons of Stewards Opera house Tuesday Jan. 8. "At Cripple Creek" is full of the vicissitudes of life and perils in a Western mining camp in the early nineties. Deeds of heroism fire the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm, while drollery and sparkling bits of comedy evoke laughter from orchestra to gallery. The magnificent scenery of the mountains has been reproduced with startling realism many novel effects enhance these striking pictures of camp life. A charming love story, replete with acts of chivalry, moves with absorbing and thrilling interest thru this wild life at "Cripple Creek." One of the strongest companies ever seen on the road in melodrama will give a powerful interpretation of the play.

MUSICAL COMEDY

It has always been conceded that Anna Hold's "The Little Duchess" was the most expensive musical comedy production in years. In fact, in point of actual outlay, nothing has yet been done that surpasses it. This season, Countess Olga von Hatzfeldt is starring with the Hold production in its entirety, and if the critics of other cities may be believed, it is one of the liveliest and girliest shows seen in a number of years. The company numbers fifty, and contains an array of youth talent and beauty that would be hard to duplicate. This attraction will appear at the Stewards Opera house Thursday Jan. 10.

CALL FOR BIDS

Bids will be received by the Recorder of the city of La Grande up to and including January 2, 1907 at 5 o'clock p.m. for all city printing requiring publication in newspapers published within the said city.
