HOOD RIVER APPLES TAKE FIRST PRIZE

Hood River carried off the prize for the best apple display at the meeting of the State Horticultural Society. Hood River sent a strong delegation to this meeting and incidentally sent about 300 boxes of her best fruit, as a result Hood River carried off fifteen cups out of a possible eighteen. Grande Ronde valley was honored by the selection of our fellow citizen, C. D. Huffman, as second vice-president. Grande Ronde valley should have had a display of apples at this meeting. We must wake up and take advantage of all these opportunities. The county court has authority to spend $1000 annually for advertising purposes.

There is little question but if the fruit unions of this county would have come before the court at the proper time, that they would have willingly appropriated $50 or possibly $100. This would have paid some one to have collected a display, accompanied it to Portland, taken care of it and after the meeting was over sold the display to some dealer and paid the growers the market price for their fruit.

We believe that properly managed, $50 would have made a good showing for the county and hundreds of people would have known that we are on the map. It is too late now for this occasion but there are other things to follow that we can take advantage of, but to do so some one or some organization must commence a sufficient time before and arrange for it. We must wake up. There are thousands of people coming to this coast during the spring. This county needs more people and should make an effort to secure them. We are possessed of the natural advantages, but we are not making the effort.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

There was a good audience at the special meeting in the Presbyterian church last night. Dr. Seemann preached an excellent sermon on "The Power of Love". He said among other things "that love was the greatest thing in the world." It was great because it was beautiful, he illustrated this by speaking of the human relationships such as that of friend to friend, brother to brother, father to son, wife to husband. It was great because it leads one to love and serve Christ. We love Him because He first loved us." Love is great because it is powerful, as it is shown in the text (Gal. 6:13-14). It is a power that works for righteousness. Again it is a power that enables us to work for others and makes our services irresistible. Mr. C. E. Cochran captured our hearts again by singing the solo, "A Clean Heart." Dr. Seemann will speak tonight on the subject "Some men who have met Christ." Mr. C. E. Cochran will sing the beautiful solo, "Since I found My Savior." A warm invitation is given to all to attend and bring your friends.
