THE GROESBECK CASE AGAIN

The case of Groesbeck et al vs Groesbeck, which was fought out in the circuit court here last spring will appear before the supreme court this week in Salem. The defendants in the case maintain that the late Groesbeck will was invalid, and won the case in the lower courts. The defendant in the case has since become appellant by appealing the case, and Attorney J. W. Knowles, who with Attorney Barber of Boise represented the defendants in the lower court, is in Salem this week, still representing the former defendants who are now respondents.

The defendant was represented in the lower court by Crawford and Crawford, but the case has now been turned over to C. E. Cochran.

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enthusiastic volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Among these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Boston Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Cox, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College of Pa., and scores of other equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prostrates, an irregular and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, sometimes known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated physician, of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidently takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for women's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every patient, using the same, know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. In a free, covered copy send Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.
